

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

(Thursday, April 13, 2023)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 11:03 a.m. and was called to order by President Pro Tempore Hancock.

Pastor Brian Treadaway, Vertical Church Ovilla, offered the invocation as follows:

O God, it is with great humility that I stand before You today. You are the maker of the heavens and the Earth, the one who holds all things by Your mighty power, and the one who has shown us the way of life in Your son Jesus. It is in that name that I pray for these great men and women today. I pray for wisdom. Like Solomon, may they be filled with insight, understanding, and clarity for leading. I pray for courage. Like Moses, may they have the boldness to stand for truth regardless of the cost. I pray for protection. Guard these halls with Your powerful hand. Watch over their families. Keep them by Your strength. For this day, this time, You have assembled them for a mighty task. I ask You to bless them in the name of Jesus. Amen.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE

SENATE BILL 1133 ON SECOND READING

On motion of Senator Blanco and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration CSSB 1133 at this time on its second reading:

CSSB 1133, Relating to a grant program to compensate landowners for property damage caused by certain criminal activities.

The bill was read second time.

Senator Blanco offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend CSSB 1133 (senate committee printing) in SECTION 1 of the bill as follows:

(1) In the heading to added Chapter 56C, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, line 22), strike "GRANT PROGRAM FOR".

(2) Immediately following added Article 56C.001, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, between lines 32 and 33), insert the following appropriately numbered Article:

Art. 56C. . ADMINISTRATION; RULES. (a) The attorney general shall adopt rules to administer this chapter.

(b) Subchapters A and B, Chapter 2001, Government Code, except Sections 2001.004(3) and 2001.005, apply to the attorney general.

(c) The attorney general may delegate to a person in the attorney general's office a power or duty given to the attorney general under this chapter.

(3) In the heading to added Article 56C.002, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, line 33), strike "GRANT" and substitute "LANDOWNER COMPENSATION".

(4) In added Article 56C.002(a), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, line 35), strike "grant".

(5) Strike added Article 56C.002(b), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, lines 42-51), and substitute the following:

(b) The attorney general shall establish:

(1) eligibility criteria for compensation under this article, including requirements for providing proof of eligibility for compensation;

(2) application procedures;

(3) criteria for evaluating applications and awarding compensation;

(4) guidelines related to compensation amounts, provided that the maximum amount awarded per incident causing damage may not exceed $75,000; and

(5) procedures for monitoring the use of compensation awarded under this article and ensuring compliance with any conditions of the award.

(6) In added Article 56C.002(d), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, line 56), strike "a grant" and substitute "compensation".

(7) Immediately following added Article 56C.002, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, between lines 6 and 7), insert the following appropriately numbered Article:

Art. 56C. . HEARINGS AND PREHEARING CONFERENCES. (a) The attorney general shall determine whether a hearing on an application for compensation under this chapter is necessary.

(b) On determining that a hearing is not necessary, the attorney general may approve the application.

(c) On determining that a hearing is necessary or on request for a hearing by the applicant, the attorney general shall consider the application at a hearing at a time and place of the attorney general's choosing. The attorney general shall notify all interested persons not later than the 10th day before the date of the hearing.

(d) At the hearing the attorney general shall:

(1) review the application for compensation; and

(2) receive other evidence that the attorney general finds necessary or desirable to evaluate the application properly.

(e) The attorney general may appoint hearing officers to conduct hearings or prehearing conferences under this chapter.

(f) A hearing or prehearing conference is open to the public unless the hearing officer or attorney general determines in a particular case that all or part of the hearing or conference should be held in private because a private hearing or conference is in the interest of the applicant.

(g) Subchapters C through H, Chapter 2001, Government Code, do not apply to the attorney general or the attorney general's orders and decisions.

(8) In added Article 56C.003(1), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, line 13), strike "grant".

(9) In added Article 56C.003(2), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, line 14), strike "grants awarded" and substitute "applicants receiving compensation".

(10) In added Article 56C.003(3), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, line 15), strike "grant money distributed" and substitute "compensation awarded".

(11) In added Article 56C.004, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, line 16), strike "grant".

(12) Renumber the articles of added Chapter 56C, Code of Criminal Procedure, and correct cross-references to those articles accordingly.

Amend CSSB 1133 (senate committee printing) in SECTION 1 of the bill as follows:

(1) Strike added Article 56C.001(2), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, lines 28-30), and substitute the following:

(2) "Border crime" means conduct:

(A) constituting an offense under:

(i) Subchapter D, Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code;

(ii) Section 20.05 or 38.04, Penal Code; or

(iii) Chapter 20A, Penal Code; and

(B) involving transnational criminal activity.

(2) Strike added Article 56C.002(a), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, lines 33-41), and substitute the following:

(a) From money appropriated for the purpose, the attorney general shall establish and administer a program to compensate landowners who suffer real property damage on agricultural land caused by:

(1) a trespasser as a result of an offense under Chapter 28, Penal Code, that was committed in the course of or in furtherance of a border crime; or

(2) a law enforcement response to a trespasser who was engaged in a border crime.

(3) Strike added Articles 56C.002(c) and (d), Code of Criminal Procedure (page 1, line 52, through page 2, line 6), and substitute the following:

(c) The attorney general may not award compensation under this article for real property damage caused by a trespasser described by Subsection (a)(1) unless the damage is documented in a written report by a law enforcement agency as having occurred in connection with a border crime.

(d) In awarding compensation under this article for real property damage caused by a trespasser described by Subsection (a)(1), the attorney general may not consider the outcome of any criminal prosecution arising out of the offense under Chapter 28, Penal Code, as a result of which the applicant suffered property damage or the applicable offense listed in Article 56C.001(2)(A).

(4) In added Article 56C.003, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, line 12), strike "Articles 56C.002(a)(1), (2), and (3)" and substitute "Article 56C.001(2)(A)".

(5) In added Article 56C.004, Code of Criminal Procedure (page 2, lines 17 and 18), between "for" and "property", insert "real".
