

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

(Tuesday, May 27, 2025)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 10:28 a.m. and was called to order by Senator Flores.

Pastor Scott Heare, Sunset Ridge Church of Christ, San Antonio, offered the invocation as follows:

Eternal God, as we gather this morning, we find ourselves in the final stretch of this legislative session. Many of us are tired. Time feels short. Some are pressing forward to finish strong, while others have already crossed their personal finish lines. This session has been short, fast, long, and tedious all at once. It has been marked by challenges, changes, and the persistent, if at times faint, thread of hope. Be present with us today. Grant us clarity of thought, steadiness of spirit. May we lead with a peace that gives us the confidence to conclude our work with integrity and to leave this Chamber proud of what we have accomplished for the people of Texas. We lift up in gratitude the families of loved ones who carry the unseen burdens throughout these long days. For the children of Senators, the wives of policy advisors, the parents of interns, and the friends and families of building and security staff, we pray for restoration. Redeem the time they've given, and let what seems lost be found. And finally, for those we serve, we pray for the great State of Texas and all who dwell within it. In these uncertain and confusing times, may Your word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. Amen.

STATEMENT REGARDING HOUSE BILL 4623

Senator Eckhardt submitted the following statement regarding CSHB 4623:

This bill is well intentioned in its desire to hold protectors of pedophiles accountable. But school employees who protect pedophiles are acting in their individual capacity and therefore can already be sued and possibly criminally prosecuted. Protecting a pedophile by acting or failing to act is not within the job description of any public school employee and is therefore not under the shield of sovereign immunity.

Sexual abuse of children is real and devastating. It can occur in schools, churches, and within families. It often continues because school administrators, church administrators or family members know but look away.

I believe that every member of the Texas Senate is genuine in their intention to protect children from sex offenders. But this bill does not make our children safer. What it does is continue a false political narrative, asserted in multiple bills this session, claiming our public schools are bastions of depravity, infested with educators intent on perverting our children. Their narrative would have us believe that school administrators can't be trusted, teachers can't be trusted and librarians can't be trusted. The rhetoric of danger around every corner actually makes it harder, not easier, to keep our children safe from true threats.

Sec. 403.703. ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF RESERVE.

(a) The Texas Strategic Bitcoin Reserve is established as a special fund outside the state treasury. The comptroller has custody of and shall administer and manage the reserve. The reserve consists of:

(1) money transferred or deposited to the credit of the reserve by legislative appropriation;

(2) revenue that the legislature by general law dedicates for deposit to the credit of the reserve;

(3) subject to Section 403.704, bitcoin and other cryptocurrency purchased using money in or received by the reserve, including any cryptocurrency:

(A) derived from the fork of a distributed ledger; or

(B) distributed pursuant to an airdrop to the state's cryptocurrency addresses; and

(4) investment earnings and interest or rewards earned on assets in the reserve.

(b) In its administration and management of the reserve, the comptroller may acquire, exchange, sell, supervise, manage, or retain any kind of investment that a prudent investor exercising reasonable care, skill, and caution would acquire, exchange, sell, supervise, manage, or retain in light of the purposes, terms, distribution requirements, and other circumstances then prevailing for the reserve, taking into consideration the investment of all the assets of the reserve rather than a single investment.

(c) The legislature may appropriate funds for deposit to the credit of the reserve for the purposes of:

(1) investing in bitcoin or other cryptocurrency; and

(2) administering and managing the reserve.

(d) The comptroller may spend bitcoin or other cryptocurrency in the reserve or use the net proceeds from the sale of bitcoin or other cryptocurrency in the reserve to pay the reasonable costs associated with administering and managing the reserve.

(e) Money in the reserve may be invested with the state treasury pool.

(f) Except as provided by Section 403.706, the comptroller may not transfer money in the reserve to the state treasury unless authorized by the legislature in the General Appropriations Act or another law.

Sec. 403.704. MARKET CAPITALIZATION REQUIREMENT. Bitcoin or other cryptocurrency purchased using money in the reserve must have an average market capitalization of at least $500 billion over the most recent 24-month period.

Sec. 403.705. THIRD-PARTY CONTRACTS AND PERMISSIBLE TRANSACTIONS; AUDITS. (a) The comptroller may contract with one or more third-party entities for the administration or management of the reserve, including contracting with:

(1) a qualified custodian who employs secure custodial technologies, including cold storage; and

(2) a qualified liquidity provider to facilitate the purchase and management of assets in the reserve.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (a)(2), "qualified liquidity provider" means an entity that:

(1) is licensed or regulated under applicable federal or state law;

(2) maintains audited financial statements prepared by a regulated auditor;

(3) has at least five years of experience trading in the digital assets industry;

(4) maintains an office and has a registered principal in this state; and

(5) has certified in a method prescribed by the comptroller that the provider meets the requirements of Subdivisions (1)-(4).

(c) If the comptroller determines it is in the best interest of the reserve, the comptroller may use derivatives.

(d) The comptroller may contract with a certified public accountant to perform an independent audit of the reserve.

Sec. 403.706. TEMPORARY TRANSFER FOR CASH MANAGEMENT. (a) The comptroller may liquidate the reserve's assets and temporarily transfer money from the reserve to the state treasury if necessary for the purposes described by Section 403.092.

(b) The comptroller shall, as soon as practicable after the date of a transfer under Subsection (a), return the transferred money to the reserve along with the interest, if any, earned on the money while held in the state treasury.

Sec. 403.707. TEXAS STRATEGIC BITCOIN RESERVE ADVISORY COMMITTEE. (a) In this section, "committee" means the Texas Strategic Bitcoin Reserve advisory committee.

(b) The committee is composed of the following five members:

(1) the comptroller;

(2) one member of the comptroller's investment advisory board established under Section 404.028, appointed by the comptroller; and

(3) three members with expertise in cryptocurrency investments, appointed by the comptroller.

(c) The committee shall advise the comptroller regarding the administration and management of the reserve, including:

(1) recommendations for valuing assets in the reserve; and

(2) the establishment of prudent investment policies relating to the investment objectives of and asset allocation in the reserve.

(d) A member of the committee is not entitled to receive compensation for service on the committee or reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of official duties as a member of the committee.

(e) Members of the committee appointed by the comptroller serve at the will of the comptroller.

(f) Chapter 2110 does not apply to the committee.

Sec. 403.708. BIENNIAL REPORT. Not later than December 31 of each even-numbered year, the comptroller shall publish on the comptroller's Internet website and submit to the legislature a report that includes:

(1) the amount of bitcoin and other cryptocurrency held in the reserve on the last day of the preceding state fiscal biennium;

(2) an estimate of the monetary value of the bitcoin and other cryptocurrency held in the reserve on the last day of the preceding state fiscal biennium;

(3) the changes, if any, in the amount and estimated monetary value of bitcoin and other cryptocurrency in the reserve during the period the cryptocurrency has been held in the reserve, disaggregated by cryptocurrency type; and

(4) a description of the actions taken by the comptroller to administer and manage the reserve during the preceding state fiscal biennium.

Sec. 403.709. RULES. The comptroller may adopt rules as necessary to administer this subchapter.

SECTION 3. Section 2256.004(a), Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) This subchapter does not apply to:

(1) a public retirement system as defined by Section 802.001;

(2) state funds invested by the comptroller ~~as authorized by Section 404.024~~;

(3) an institution of higher education having total endowments of at least $150 million in book value on September 1, 2017;

(4) funds invested by the Veterans' Land Board as authorized by Chapter 161, 162, or 164, Natural Resources Code;

(5) registry funds deposited with the county or district clerk under Chapter 117, Local Government Code; or

(6) a deferred compensation plan that qualifies under either Section 401(k) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Section 1 et seq.), as amended.

SECTION 4. As soon as possible after the effective date of this Act, the comptroller of public accounts shall:

(1) adopt rules as necessary to implement this Act; and

(2) appoint members to the Texas Strategic Bitcoin Reserve advisory committee as required by Section 403.707, Government Code, as added by this Act.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2025.
