(k) Subsections (f) through (j) do not apply to an area:

(1) in a municipality's extraterritorial jurisdiction if the municipality has a population of more than 1.3 million;
