EIGHTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

(Sunday, June 1, 2025)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 2:42 p.m. and was called to order by the President.

Pastor Jared Douglas, First Red Oak Church, Red Oak, offered the invocation as follows:

Heavenly Father, we humbly come before You today and acknowledge that You are God, and we are not. You are the creator of all, You are sovereign over all, and You are the redeemer for all who trust in the finished work of Your son, Jesus Christ. Father, we thank You for allowing us to live in this great nation and we thank You for all of those who have served and who currently are serving in our Armed Forces. We pray for Your continued blessing and protection on them and over them. Father, we also thank You for the privilege that we have to live in the great State of Texas, and we thank You for those in this room today who serve our state in their elected positions. I pray specifically for them today that You would give them the wisdom, discernment, and courage they need to make the best decisions that are set before them. I pray that You would help them to always remember that they are not only accountable to those that they represent, but most importantly, they are accountable to You for the choices and decisions they make. I pray that in light of this reality, they would faithfully and diligently fulfill their roles and responsibilities to the best of their abilities. Lord, I pray that Your hand of blessing and protection would be upon them, and I pray that they would not just seek to be leaders who serve, but more importantly, help them to strive to be servants who lead for the good of the people and for the glory of Your name. And I pray all of these things in the name that is above all names, the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
