For we yearn for this people and this state, for their common welfare and aspirations, and we pray for the sacred trust they place in their leaders. For the opportunities that these next few hours offer us, for all that is truly good and worthy of human endeavor, for all that we have come here today intending to do, and all that we will leave here today having accomplished, we pray. For leadership that courts virtue, especially wisdom, integrity, vision, and compassion, for the ability to lead as we ourselves wish to be led, and to govern as we ourselves wish to be governed, we pray. Grant us the grace to know and to do all that this day requires as we prove worthy of this trust of service, leadership, and compassion. Amen.
