My gracious heavenly Father, You are the God of order. You are the one who has ordained civil authorities to govern and protect the people under their care. Therefore, I lift up the men and women gathered here today and ask that they may know Your leading as You direct their steps in these critical times so that we may enjoy the blessings You have poured out on our great state. The eyes of the nation are watching what happens in these hallowed halls so the decisions made here have national and international consequences. Give our Senators and their staff wisdom and discernment to make the tough and right decisions. Bless and defend their families so that they have the freedom to do what is being asked of them. I ask that You would forgive, renew, and restore us to right standing in Your eyes and in the eyes of our people. It's into Your hands I commend each and every one as I trust again in Your mercy through Your son, Jesus Christ, my lord. Amen.
