Pastor Jeff McCreight, Rock City, Lubbock, was introduced by Senator Perry and offered the invocation as follows:

Our Father and our God, we approach Your throne today on behalf of our State Senators. We acknowledge that You are God of all creation. And where You are in heaven, where You have Your perfect will, there is everything desirable. We understand that somewhere in some dimension below us there is another place that is everything undesirable, and here we are right in the middle. I invite Your perfect will to be done for us here in the State of Texas and in America. I ask that Your wisdom would be imparted to these individuals enabling them to collectively lead this state to higher heights of accomplishment and deeper depths of moral conviction. We thank You for our leadership. We are thankful that we are not a state without walls. And though we may not always be in perfect agreement and harmony, we are also not a state that is unguarded and vulnerable. I pray as they give of themselves in this leadership position that the seeds of effort would create a great return in their personal lives and in their families. Bless their marriages and bless their health. As did King David, may they serve their generations well. Now, may Your kingdom come and Your will be done here for us where we are, in the middle. We ask these things in the name of the savior of the world, Jesus Christ. Amen.
