PROCEEDINGS

FIFTIETH DAY

(Tuesday, May 12, 2015)

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Bettencourt, Birdwell, Burton, Campbell, Creighton, Eltife, Estes, Fraser, Garcia, Hall, Hancock, Hinojosa, Huffines, Huffman, Kolkhorst, Lucio, Menéndez, Nelson, Nichols, Perry, Rodríguez, Schwertner, Seliger, L. Taylor, V. Taylor, Uresti, Watson, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Absent-excused: Ellis.

The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Pastor Kevin Hintze, Zion Lutheran Church, Georgetown, was introduced by Senator Schwertner and offered the invocation as follows:

Gracious Lord, we are thankful every day for the opportunities we have to serve You, to serve the people of our land, and to serve in positions of elected leadership with one another. We pray that You would continually bless the preservation of our country and all who uphold duties within positions of civil authority. We seek Your guidance in prayer throughout our blessed State of Texas and for the freedom we each enjoy as citizens of this land. Endow Your spirit of wisdom today upon our leaders here in the Texas Senate, along with all aides and support staff who assist them, who have been led to faithfully serve the citizens of this state within the authority of government. Encourage these leaders to fulfill their elected duties with a spirit of sacrifice for the common welfare, with mercy and justice, with uprightness and kindness. We fervently pray that justice and concord will abide, that peace and prosperity are safeguarded, and that we boldly take on the opportunities of telling others about You with great courage. Give us courage to face the pressing needs and decisions for today. We thank You for blessings of home, health, happiness, faith, freedom, forgiveness, and most of all for hearing our prayers. In the name of Jesus, we pray and open this Senatorial session today. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

On motion of Senator Whitmire, Senator Ellis was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 114

The President laid before the Senate the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Every day, peace officers devote themselves to the security and well-being of the people they serve, and Operation Blue Shield is committed to supporting them in their vital mission; and

WHEREAS, Operation Blue Shield is a community-centric initiative designed to promote better understanding and improved relations between citizens and law enforcement; the campaign encourages open and constructive dialogue between police and the wider community and recognizes the importance of acknowledging diverse backgrounds and perspectives; toward that end, it raises funds to underwrite public safety endeavors and to help meet the evolving resource needs of peace officers; and

WHEREAS, This innovative program was founded by philanthropist Toni Brinker Pickens and benefits from the involvement of the Dallas-based organization Economic Partners Investing in Communities; like other EPIC projects, Operation Blue Shield is backed by a broad range of city leaders, civic and charitable organizations, and concerned residents; these participants are focusing attention on the message that "We're All In This Together" and are urging Texans to "Go All In" to help forge stronger ties between police and the public; and

WHEREAS, Safe neighborhoods are the foundation of a stable and prosperous society, and Operation Blue Shield represents a promising new effort to build greater trust between citizens and the peace officers who protect them; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 84th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby recognize the Operation Blue Shield initiative and encourage Texans throughout the state to support this worthwhile program; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for Operation Blue Shield as an expression of high regard by the Texas Legislature.

Senator Nelson offered the following amendment to the bill:

Floor Amendment No. 1

Amend CSSB 1899 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering the subsequent SECTIONS of the bill appropriately:

SECTION _____. Section 773.050, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Subsection (i) to read as follows:

(i) The department may develop and administer at least twice each calendar year a jurisprudence examination to determine the knowledge that an applicant for an emergency medical services provider license or emergency medical services personnel certification has of this chapter, department rules, and any other applicable laws affecting the applicant's activities regulated under this chapter. Department rules must specify who must take the examination on behalf of an entity applying for an emergency medical services provider license.

SECTION ____ . Section 773.0571, Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapters 1089 (H.B. 3556) and 1311 (S.B. 8), Acts of the 83rd Legislature, Regular Session, 2013, is reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 773.0571. REQUIREMENTS FOR PROVIDER LICENSE. The department shall issue to an emergency medical services provider applicant a license that is valid for two years if the department is satisfied that:

(1) the applicant has adequate staff to meet the staffing standards prescribed by this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) each emergency medical services vehicle is adequately constructed, equipped, maintained, and operated to render basic or advanced life support services safely and efficiently;

(3) the applicant offers safe and efficient services for emergency prehospital care and transportation of patients;

(4) the applicant:

(A) possesses sufficient professional experience and qualifications to provide emergency medical services; and

(B) has not been excluded from participation in the state Medicaid program;

(5) the applicant holds a letter of approval issued under Section 773.0573 by the governing body of the municipality or the commissioners court of the county in which the applicant is located and is applying to provide emergency medical services, as applicable; ~~and~~

(6) the applicant employs a medical director; ~~and~~

(7) the applicant operates out of a physical location in compliance with Section 773.05715;

(8) the applicant owns or has a long-term lease agreement for all equipment necessary for safe operation of an emergency medical services provider, as provided by Section 773.05716; and

(9) ~~(6)~~ the applicant complies with the rules adopted under this chapter.

SECTION ____ . Section 773.05713, Health and Safety Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 773.05713. REPORT TO LEGISLATURE. Not later than December 1 of each even-numbered year, the department shall electronically submit a report to the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the standing committees of the house and senate with jurisdiction over the department on the effect of Sections 773.05711 and 773.05712 that includes:

(1) the total number of applications for emergency medical services provider licenses submitted to the department and the number of applications for which licenses were issued or licenses were denied by the department;

(2) the number of emergency medical services provider licenses that were suspended or revoked by the department for violations of those sections and a description of the types of violations that led to the license suspension or revocation;

(3) the number of occurrences and types of fraud committed by licensed emergency medical services providers related to those sections;

(4) the number of complaints made against licensed emergency medical services providers for violations of those sections and a description of the types of complaints, reported in the manner required by Section 773.0605(d); and

(5) the status of any coordination efforts of the department and the Texas Medical Board related to those sections.

SECTION _____. Subchapter C, Chapter 773, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Sections 773.05715 and 773.05716 to read as follows:

Sec. 773.05715. PHYSICAL LOCATION REQUIRED. (a) An emergency medical services provider must have a permanent physical location as the provider's primary place of business. An applicant for an emergency medical services provider license must demonstrate proof of the location of the primary place of business in the manner required by the department.

(b) The physical location may be owned or leased by the emergency medical services provider.

(c) The emergency medical services provider must remain in the same physical location for the period of licensure, unless the department approves a change in location.

(d) The emergency medical services provider must maintain all patient care records in the physical location that is the provider's primary place of business, unless the department approves an alternate location.

(e) Only one emergency medical services provider may operate out of a single physical location.

Sec. 773.05716. NECESSARY EQUIPMENT. (a) An emergency medical services provider must own or hold a long-term lease for all equipment necessary for the safe operation of an emergency medical services provider, including emergency medical services vehicles, heart rate monitors, defibrillators, stretchers, and any other equipment the department determines is required.

(b) An applicant for an emergency medical services provider license must demonstrate proof of compliance with this section in the manner required by the department.

SECTION _____. Subchapter C, Chapter 773, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Section 773.0605 to read as follows:

Sec. 773.0605. COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS. (a) The department shall track and keep records of:

(1) each complaint received by the department regarding emergency medical services providers and emergency medical services personnel;

(2) each investigation initiated by the department under this chapter; and

(3) each disciplinary action initiated by the department under this chapter.

(b) The department shall develop a formal process to refer complaints outside the department's jurisdiction to the appropriate agency for disposition.

(c) The department shall track the types of complaints received outside the department's jurisdiction. The department shall separately track complaints outside the department's jurisdiction relating to potential billing fraud and make information relating to those complaints available to the appropriate state agency.

(d) The department shall annually report statistical information regarding each complaint received, and each investigation or disciplinary action initiated, under this chapter. The report must include:

- (1) the reason and basis for each complaint;
- (2) the origin of each investigation, including whether the investigation:

(A) resulted from a complaint brought by a consumer;

(B) resulted from a complaint brought by another source; or

(C) was initiated by the department in the absence of a complaint;

(3) the average time to resolve each complaint from the date the complaint is received;

- (4) the disposition of each investigation, including:

(A) the number of investigations commenced in which no disciplinary action was taken, and the reasons no disciplinary action was taken;

(B) the number of investigations resulting in disciplinary action, and the disciplinary actions taken; and

(C) the number of complaints referred to another agency for disposition; and

(5) the number, type, and age of each open investigation at the end of each fiscal year.

(e) The department shall make the report required by Subsection (d) available to the public through publication on the department's website and on request.

SECTION _____. Section 773.0611, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Subsection (d) to read as follows:

(d) The department may use an inspection performed by an entity to which the department has delegated inspection authority as a basis for a disciplinary action under Section 773.061.

SECTION _____. (a) The changes in law made by Sections 773.05715 and 773.05716, Health and Safety Code, as added by this Act, apply only to a person that applies for a license or renews a license as an emergency medical services provider on or after September 1, 2015.

(b) The Department of State Health Services shall develop the formal process required by Section 773.0605(b), Health and Safety Code, as added by this Act, as soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act.

(c) The Department of State Health Services may use an inspection performed by an entity to which the department has delegated inspection authority as a basis for a disciplinary action, as provided by Section 773.0611(d), Health and Safety Code, as added by this Act, regardless of whether the inspection was performed before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.
