God, Creator, Father, Mother, Holy Trinity, Power, in this room there are so many different names that we have for You, but hopefully there is one experience that we all share related to You, and that is love, that we all know You through Your central character, which is love. God is love, and we as God followers will be known by our love. So, may our politics in this place be love, imitate love, mimic love, serve love, which means that they will strive for justice instead of power; for equality, not division; for common good, not political favor; for unity, not division; for sacrifice, not self; and for love, not fear. Because that is love, justice, equality, common good, unity, and sacrifice. May we be people who are known as God followers because we are people who embody love. That is how Your kingdom will come about. That is our calling. May it be so. Amen and Amen.
