Members, the Texas Senate is a special institution, rich in history and tradition. Service in the Texas Senate makes one a part of that great institution and, indeed, part of Texas history.

Service, tradition, history—all so very important to this body, and we are honored by the presence of our former Members today. Unfortunately, the number of former Members has become fewer since we last honored them.

Because of our respect and love for each other, Senate tradition on Former Members Day calls for remembering and honoring those former Members who have died during the interim and for publicly reading their names into the Senate record.

Members, on your desks you will find the memorial booklet prepared in honor of those seven former colleagues and friends. You will note that former Senator Jim Wallace's recognition is an insert to the booklet, which had already been produced prior to his passing. In alphabetical order, we honor the memory of:

Senator Roy Morris Blake Sr.

Texas Senator 1978-1989

Senator Chester Edward "Chet" Brooks

Texas Senator 1967-1993

Senator Chris Harris
Texas Senator 1991-2013
Senator E. L. Short

Senator William McKinnie "Bill" Sims
Texas Senator 1983-1997
Senator Jack Boynton Strong
Texas Senator 1963-1971
Senator James Price "Jim" Wallace
Texas Senator 1971-1974

Statesmen, public servants, Texas Senators—Dean Whitmire, I ask that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of these who served so well the state they loved so much.
