I pray blessings over this building and each one who enters. I ask Your protection and blessings on our military and first responders who sacrificially stand in the gap for us as individuals and for our nation. REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Rodríguez submitted the following reason for vote on CSSB 3:

I'm proud to vote for and be a co-author of Senate Bill 3, which will provide classroom teachers a long-overdue pay raise of $5000 starting next school year. While this pay raise will not solve all of the issues and inequities in our public school system, it is an important step in the right direction. Also, as the first bill to be considered and voted out of the Texas Senate, it shows we are focused on the priorities that are important to all Texans across the state rather than the partisan, divisive issues that characterized much of the 2017 legislative sessions.

Teachers are a crucial component to the education system, and can have the biggest impact on the littlest Texans. We give classroom teachers their best opportunity to succeed when we surround them with the wraparound supports they need. We afford them the ability to teach at their highest level when we ensure that the schools they work in are sufficiently staffed with the paraprofessionals, counselors, nurses, librarians, janitors, and bus drivers that are needed to manage that school's student population.

As this session progresses, teacher pay must remain a vital part of any comprehensive school finance solution that addresses ongoing inequities in the system. The public school system is the backbone of this state, and we must make the critical investments needed to ensure our state's future success.
