IN MEMORIAM

Senator Hughes offered the following remarks and read the following names from "A State of Remembrance, April 4, 2019":

Members, of course, on your desk also is the book of remembrance. The Texas Senate is a special institution. Each one of us once we arrive, begin to realize the privilege, the tremendous responsibility, and all the people that are counting on us and the gravity of what we do and the significance, not of us as individuals, but when we're elected by our constituents to represent them, to be their voice, to deliberate, and to serve here. So, we think about the institution we have, it's rich in history and tradition. And, of course, service here makes one part of that great institution and of Texas history itself. Think about service, tradition, history, they're very important to this body, and that's why we're so thankful to have former Members with us today as well. Because of our love and our respect for each other, on Former Members Day our tradition is to remember and honor those who we've lost during the interim and to publicly read their names into the Senate record. On your desk, again, you'll find the memorial booklet in honor of those five former colleagues and so, in alphabetical order, we honor the memory of:

The Honorable Ralph Moody Hall
State Senator–1963 to 1973

The Honorable Walter H. Mengden Jr.
State Senator–1973 to 1983
The Honorable Jack Ogg
State Senator—1973 to 1983
The Honorable Aaron Robert "Babe" Schwartz
State Senator—1960 to 1981
The Honorable Murray Watson Jr.
State Senator—1963 to 1973

Many of us here knew each of these personally to varying degrees. We know each of them as a statesman, a public servant, and as a Texas Senator.
And so, Dean Whitmire, I move that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of these who served so well this state they loved so much.
And I thank you, Mr. President.

CONCLUSION

Senator Whitmire was again recognized for closing remarks and thanked the honored guests for their service to the State of Texas.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Nelson and by unanimous consent, Senator Whitmire's remarks in conclusion of the Former Members Day ceremony were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Thank you, Governor Patrick, and we appreciate your kind words. Members and guests, this is the part of the program prepared by Patsy and my office. It says, Whitmire closes with recognition that we are family and some say a club. But I choose to depart from prepared remarks today to make some heartfelt comments. First, this is a remarkable institution. There's 31 Texans that come from all parts of the state that represent 26 million Texans. When you walk through the doors of this Chamber, Members, you become a part of a select group of officials that will always be known as Senator. But with that title comes responsibility. First and foremost, respect for the institution and the reverence it deserves because it represents Texas. I would hasten to say that you represent the institution by respecting all of its Members, former and present. Just take a moment to look around this Chamber. You could point to any one of the current 31 Members, and I can tell you why that Senator is special. Chuy Hinojosa, deported when he was five years old, with his mother, spent months in Mexico, could only see his father on the weekends, but when he finished high school, worst moments of the Vietnam War, he volunteered and joined the Marines where he became a hero. He's still very affected by that experience. Brian Birdwell, a miracle, was in the Pentagon on 9-11, should not be alive today. Covered in jet fuel, on fire, but because his faith in God and his will to live, he's sitting on this Senate floor today. Pete Flores, just to show you the remarkable institution we have, there's many thinks he's sitting in a Democratic seat, Mr. President, but we've got another day to discuss that. What we are recognizing is he's a Member of this Senate, and I daily watch Democrats and Republicans help him to be a more effective Senator. Some of our base supporters in both parties don't think we're supposed to do that. I laid out a bill for him yesterday. This remarkable man won a campaign that many thought he couldn't, had a lot of help, Mr. President, but he, yeah, big dollars by the way, he served as a game warden for 26 years, as a state employee. And I've watched him in Finance working groups use that experience and argue for better benefits for state employees. Pete, who would have thought when you joined the Game Warden, Parks and Wildlife, that you would be here representing your co-workers some day. Look at our diversity, Mr. President. There are more women in the Senate than have ever before, and they chair some of our most important committees, including Finance, State Affairs, Health and Human Services, and Military Affairs. This is largely due to their wisdom and leadership skills and the recognition by the Lieutenant Governor who made these outstanding appointments. We have seven Hispanics who will someday, very soon, represent the majority of Texans. And I dare say the majority of the Texas Senate. We have two African American Members. I remember a time when we did not have any African Americans serving in this institution. With no disrespect, most former Members were Anglo males, with the exception of trailblazers Gonzalo Barrientos, Florence Shapiro, Wendy Davis, and Senator Van de Putte. And as I close, because we do need to get to work, let me ask that we all rededicate ourselves to being the best, the best public servants possible, and the best friends possible. And if we, as a group, have a bad day and the train gets off track, let's talk. And remember we have more in common than we are different. And remember how satisfying it is when we have a good day on the Senate floor. Like our guests that we honor today, we will forever be Senators, and nobody, no one will ever know how that feels unless you've been one. On behalf of the Senate, I want to personally thank our honored guests for your service to the state and this Senate. Each of us on this Senate floor will someday be former Members, and we must dedicate ourselves to protecting the honor of this august body that we are so privileged to serve. Mr. President, I would ask that the Senate stand at ease, pending the departure of our guests, and we so greatly appreciate your presence today. Thank you.

AT EASE

The President at 11:53 a.m. announced the Senate would stand At Ease subject to the call of the Chair.

WHEREAS, The dangers of drunk driving and underage drinking are issues of concern to every Texan; and

WHEREAS, While concerted law enforcement and education efforts have done much to curb drunk driving over the past few decades, more than 10,000 alcohol-related deaths still occur on our nation's roadways each year; and

WHEREAS, A total of 1,468 Texans died in drunk driving crashes in 2017; although this number is above the national average, alcohol-impaired driving fatalities overall have been on the decline at both the state and national levels, and our state has seen a 7.5 percent decrease in such fatalities among drivers under the age of 21 in the last decade alone; and

WHEREAS, The State of Texas has worked to reduce the incidence of impaired driving through the use of DWI courts, law enforcement training, No Refusal campaigns, ignition interlock devices, alcoholism treatment, and other lifesaving countermeasures; and

WHEREAS, Underage drinking, which continues to be a persistent problem despite a decline to record-low levels in 2018, is an area of particular focus for our state; the number of Texans between the ages of 12 and 20 reporting alcohol consumption in the past month is now around 17 percent, a decrease of 36 percent since 2008, and the continued cooperation of state law enforcement agencies, alcohol awareness organizations, and responsible parents can play an instrumental role in ensuring that our youth avoid impaired driving; and

WHEREAS, Research shows that parents can help prevent underage drinking and alcohol abuse by beginning conversations with their children about alcohol use at an early age and by continuing to speak with them about the issue throughout childhood, adolescence, and early adulthood; with the help of Responsibility.org and other organizations, 73 percent of teenagers now identify parents as the leading influence in their decisions regarding alcohol, representing a 33 percent increase since 1991; and

WHEREAS, The recognition of April as Alcohol Responsibility Month offers a welcome opportunity to call attention to the work that must be done to further reduce the tragic impact of drunk driving and underage drinking in Texas; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the 86th Texas Legislature hereby recognize April 2019 as Alcohol Responsibility Month and encourage all Texans to make responsible decisions regarding the consumption of alcohol and to support efforts to reduce drunk driving and underage drinking.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Lucio and by unanimous consent, his remarks with Senator Hancock regarding CSSB 1152 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Lucio: Thank you, Chairman Hancock, and thank you for bringing this bill to the floor. I understand and agree with the reasons why the proponents who brought this bill want to modernize the right-of-way fee structure, but what they have also said is that the bill would result in tax relief for their customers, but I don’t see anything in the bill that would require them to pass the savings to the customers. Could you explain how that relief will happen? Can we get some legislative intent on the record to hold these companies' feet to the fire? I want to do whatever we can to ensure that where there is a line item fee on customers' bills that when the line item goes away, if we pass this legislation, that the customers will directly receive the full benefit of that fee being eliminated.
Senator Hancock: Yes, thank you, Senator Lucio. In fact, that’s the intent of this legislation is that our customers, our constituents would see a fee reduction in their cable bills. We know that all of our citizens are looking for tightening the purse strings a little bit, and so what this bill does is where there is a single-lease line and two tasks, a telephone line and a cable coming across that single entity, that they’re not charged twice by municipalities for the same access. And so, while in this segment, in this industry, we do not have a regulated fee structure. In other words, we do not have a commission, we do have some, that we regulate this decrease in the taxation being passed on to constituent. It is fully my intent that it is our constituents that see the cost savings here that we're providing. I just don't see any need to provide, to pay two lease payments for a single line, but while we're not regulated, absolutely, it is my intent, and I think you'll help me hold those industries' feet to the fire to make sure that our constituents receive a rate reduction.

Senator Lucio: That's wonderful. Can the service providers take the line items on the bill but hide the fees in their customers' bills?

Senator Hancock: I'm sorry, Senator Lucio.

Senator Lucio: Can the service providers take the line items on the bill but hide the fees in the customers' bills?

Senator Hancock: Well, currently, begin, because we don't have a regulated rate structure, we do not have a requirement for the line items when it comes to the cable fees.

Senator Lucio: Well, I just want to thank you, Chairman Hancock, for your willingness to have this discussion and deliver tax relief to our constituents. I support your bill, Sir.

Senator Hancock: Thank you, Senator Lucio. That's what we're looking for.
