We can see Your handiwork, not only in the vast universe You have created and in the intricate structure of the atoms and cells that make up life on this planet, but we can also see Your amazing work in history that has provided us with this unique republic we have inherited, a republic united under God with freedom and justice for all. Thank You for the way You have blessed our country, and thank You for the way You have blessed our state. Would You minister in a special way to the Senators of the State of Texas? Grant each one of them an awareness of Your presence, Your guidance, and Your blessing. Guide each one of them to walk with honesty and integrity. And guide them to legislate in keeping with Your righteous character and in accordance with the wisdom You provide. Decisions that these men and women must make are often quite difficult. Grant them a clear understanding of the issues and the impact of their decisions. The supplemental payment shall be made to an alternate payee who is an annuitant under Section 804.005, Government Code, only if the annuity payment to the alternate payee commenced on or before December 31, 2018. (g) The supplemental payment does not apply to payments under:

(1) Section 824.304(a), Government Code, relating to disability retirees with less than 10 years of service credit;

(2) Section 824.804(b), Government Code, relating to participants in the deferred retirement option plan with regard to payments from their deferred retirement option plan accounts;

(4) Section 824.404(a), Government Code, relating to active member survivor beneficiaries who receive a survivor annuity in an amount fixed by statute.

(h) The board of trustees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas shall determine the eligibility for and the amount and timing of a supplemental payment and the manner in which the payment is made.

(i) The state shall appropriate to the Teacher Retirement System of Texas an amount equal to the cost of the one-time supplemental payment required by this section. This amount is in addition to the amount the state is required to contribute to the Teacher Retirement System of Texas under Section 825.404, Government Code. If the state does not transfer the appropriated amount described by this subsection, the Teacher Retirement System of Texas shall not issue the one-time supplemental payment required by this section.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Menéndez and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senator Lucio regarding SR 728 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Mr. President and Members, this coming Sunday, we will be saluting the most lovable and important person in our lives, our Mothers. In the words of Agatha Christie, a mother's love for her child is like nothing else in the world. It knows no law, no pity. It dares all things and crushes down all that stands in its path. Today, I would like to share with you the story of one mother whose love for her child is like nothing else in the world: Ms. Ida Hagg, from Rio Hondo, Texas. Ida was supposed to be my floor guest, but could not travel due to an illness in the family. In 1997, Ida's son, Chauncey, joined the United States Army and was deployed to Bosnia. Being a loving and devoted mother, Ida would mail a care package to him every single day. One day, Chauncey replied with a letter saying: Mom, I've got 10 soldiers in my platoon. I get a box from you every day, cartoons, beef jerky, vitamins, toothpaste. There are some soldiers who are 18 and 19 who have no family and I know they won't get a box. So instead of sending one box, send 10, one for me and nine for my battle buddies. And at a bit of personal expense, she did. Every day she sent a care package to her son, and one for each of the 9 soldiers in his squad. Soon after, a lieutenant learned of her generosity and asked if she would send 40 boxes a day, one for each soldier in her son's platoon. And, at great personal expense, she did. It wasn't long before a captain with a second platoon contacted her, and before she knew it, she was sending care packages every day for every soldier in the entire company. Her motherly love grew too much for one person to handle. She was soon committed to do the same for the battalion, and then the brigade! That is when Ida realized she had to reach out for help. She formed a nonprofit organization and named it AdoptaPlatoon to continue the work of sending daily care packages to troops overseas. Chauncey completed his military service, but her love for bringing joy to service members didn't end. With the help of her son, she grew her organization to become one of the Best In America, certified by the Independent Charities of America. However, it's with tremendous sadness that I report on May 30, 2015, Chauncey Walter David Hagg, the motivation for establishing AdoptaPlatoon, passed, regretfully afflicted with PTSD. Stricken with grief, Ida channeled her energy into AdoptaPlatoon, in memory of her son, to extend the great love she has for him to countless service members overseas. From a little warehouse in the Rio Grande Valley the former Rio Hondo High School teacher launched an organization which has grown into one of the largest grassroots supporters of America's servicemen and women. AdoptaPlatoon Soldier Support Effort is a 501(c)(3) dedicated to serving deployed United States service troops; providing ongoing care packages to improve quality of life and raise morale for those serving overseas in all branches of the military. Today, AdoptaPlatoon employs 17 staff members and countless volunteers to send over 30,000 daily packages, 365 days a year. Only a mother truly knows and understands the most important needs of a child. AdoptaPlatoon sends items like socks, hygiene products, and notes of appreciation, all topped off with tons of cookies, the types of items only a mother knows to send. Mr. President, Members, I offered this resolution today to honor a very special mother in South Texas, and I would like to wish a very happy Mother's Day to all the wonderful mothers present here. I ask God's grace and protection for them so that they can keep up with the blessing of providing the love that can only be matched by the love of God for His children. It's my honor to offer Senate Resolution 728 to remember the life of Chauncey Hagg and recognize the work of Ida Hagg as the founder of AdoptaPlatoon. Thank you, Mr. President and Members. I move adoption.
