Gracious God, we are thankful for the great State of Texas. We are thankful for its people, for those who have lived here for generations and for those who, even today, are just driving across the state line to make their home here, seeking the unapparelled opportunity with which You have so richly blessed us. May they experience and live out the freedom and responsibility, the hard work and the playfulness that animated our Texas ancestors. At this time and in this place, we are thankful for its leaders, for those who work diligently to create the opportunity for success for all those who live here. Most especially, on this day, we are thankful for the men and women in the Senate, for those who deliberate the bills that, once law, affect the daily lives of those who call Texas home. We ask now that You will give them diligence in their thoughtful deliberations. Give them wisdom and civility as they consider often controversial and emotional bills. Teach them, we pray, Lord, the fine art of acting on the courage of their convictions, and match it with a spirit of collaboration as they work for the good of the whole. Remove any and all hubris and self-interest that would keep them from serving the public good. On this May day, release them from decision fatigue so that they may finish the session well. I ask that You will bless them with energy and imagination and help them to always remember that we have more that unites us than we have that separates us. In Your holy name I pray. Amen.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 19, Nays 12. (Same as previous roll call)

REASON FOR VOTE

Senator Rodríguez submitted the following reason for vote on SB 1978:

Over the past few sessions, after the U.S. Supreme Court held that, based on the Due Process Clause and the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment, the fundamental right to marry is guaranteed for all of us, including same-sex couples, we have seen an escalating effort to codify the right to discriminate against LGBTQ Texans.

Frankly, regardless of whether or not this is even within the state's authority, it is troubling on its face that the Legislature would spend so much time and energy trying to impose what amounts to little more than state-sanctioned discrimination based on the religious beliefs of some individuals who do not believe LGBTQ Texans deserve equal treatment under the law.

However, in the case of S.B. 1978, it is more than just troubling. This is contrary to the rights guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution. I believe if we pass this law, the state will have to spend significant sums of money to defend, and the state will likely lose. Beyond that, this bill, like so many others we have seen in the past including the infamous "bathroom bill," is squarely aimed at using the power of the state to further discrimination against LGBTQ Texans.

The intent is obvious from the original bill caption, titled "Relating to the protection of religious beliefs and moral convictions, including beliefs and convictions regarding marriage," and the original bill language, "notwithstanding any other law, a governmental entity may not take any adverse action against any person based wholly or partly on a person's belief or action in accordance with the person's sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction, including beliefs or convictions regarding marriage." Why specify "marriage" if this is not specifically aimed at LGBTQ Texans?

Even as amended, Section 2400.002 provides that a government entity cannot take any adverse action against a person "based wholly or partly on the person's membership in, affiliation with, or contribution, donation, or other support provided to a religious organization."

It's deeply concerning that some religious groups would seek purpose in their right to discriminate against others just because of who they are, and that the Legislature would support this. This is even more so when placed against the words of the Texas Constitution, which state, in part, that "no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious society or mode of worship." S.B. 1978 makes the preference of law subservient to a particular religious belief, adversarial to a person's right not to be discriminated against by those offering services to the public.

It is for these reasons that I voted against S.B. 1978.
