AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 10:19 a.m. and was called to order by the President.

Pastor Jimmy Pruitt, Oak Hills Church, Fredericksburg, offered the invocation as follows:

Father, we are here today to conduct the business of government. I ask as a son to a good father, would You preside over this important and pivotal time in the history of our great state? Would You make Your presence known as critical decisions are being made that affect the trajectory of our communities? The scriptures are clear that we are to speak hope and blessing over our communities. By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but the wicked can destroy it with their words. (Proverbs 11:11) Father, give us grace to speak life, speak grace, and speak peace over our cities and over our state. Father, would You pour out Your grace over each person here today as they exercise their high calling and bear the weight of civil government on their shoulders? Thank You for their sacrifice to serve the people of our state. Thank You for their families who will miss them during this season. Thank You for the people who have positioned them in this high and honorable place of service. I ask for wisdom, justice, righteousness, stamina, equity, and for the ability to think and act with kindness, fairness, and grace toward one another. And when all is said and done here, we will leave this place trusting that Your will and Your purposes for the lives of the people we serve will have been done. I pray all things in Your most holy name. Amen.

In matters of concurrent jurisdiction with the district court, the district clerk shall charge the same fees as are allowed in district court cases, except that in cases described by Subsections (a)(1)(A) and (2) and in misdemeanor cases other than those involving official misconduct, the clerk may not charge higher fees than the fees charged by county clerks for similar cases [and proceedings, and the county clerk serves as clerk of the court in all other matters].

h) If a jury trial is requested in a case that is in a county court at law's jurisdiction, the jury shall be composed of 6 members unless the constitution requires a 12-member jury. Failure to object before a 6-member jury is seated and sworn constitutes a waiver of a 12-member jury.

i) If any cause or proceeding is lodged with the district clerk and the district clerk files, docket, or assigns the cause or proceeding in or to a county court at law that does not have subject matter jurisdiction over the cause or proceeding, the filing, docketing, or assignment of the cause or proceeding in or to a county court at law is considered a clerical error. That clerical error must be corrected by a judgment or order nunc pro tunc. The cause or proceeding is considered filed, docketed, or assigned to the district court of the local administrative judge in the first instance rather than to the county court at law. The judge of a county court at law who acts in the cause or proceeding is considered assigned to the district court of the local administrative judge for that purpose and has all the powers of the judge of that district court under the assignment [Practice in a county court at law is that prescribed by law for county courts, except that practice and procedure, rules of evidence, issuance of process and writs, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of trials and hearings involving family law cases and proceedings are governed by this section and the laws and rules pertaining to district courts. If a family law case is tried before a jury, the jury shall be composed of 12 members].

(b) Section 25.1972(k), Government Code, is repealed.
