The President announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Senator Miles offered the invocation as follows:

Lord, we pray for our Members on both sides in the Senate and the House. Reveal Yourself to us, bring us closer to You, each in our own unique way, that we may hear Your voice clearly and distinctly. Speak to us of truth, integrity, justice, and fairness. Return us, we pray, to upholding the democracy of our country and our state and to help others, to right the wrongs, and to make the world a better place. Give each one of us strength to reach out to our colleagues across the aisle and work together, our Father. We boldly pray You would bless our families individually and collectively. Let us see the good works done by the people of faith across our state and our districts. Give us a desire to promote what honors You, Lord. Let us hear Your voice speak to us of honor, sacrifice, and purity. Let us not forget why we are here. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.
