President: Senator Bettencourt you yield?

Senator Bettencourt: Certainly.

Senator Gutierrez: Thank you, Senator. You know, certainly I'm always amazed about the difference between the House and Senate because we really do work things out here. We discussed a notion of putting it on a passport amendment. You and I talked about it, said why was it probably a good idea because passports don't have–

Senator Bettencourt: That's just penciled in.

Senator Gutierrez: An address anymore, right. That's just penciled in.

Senator Gutierrez: That's right. And so, we talked about the things that prove up residency at DPS, Department of Public Safety, what others would know as the DMV, and I'm going to go through the list so that we can get some intent–

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: –on, if we could. You're okay with current deed, mortgage, monthly mortgage statement, mortgage payment–

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: –booklet, already in your bill, correct?
Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: Valid unexpired Texas voter registration card is actually the problem that you're trying to address.

Senator Bettencourt: Right, because we're trying to not register private P.O. boxes that could have a mistake.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. Unexpired Texas motor vehicle registration or title.

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: A valid unexpired Texas boat registration or title is in your bill.

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. Valid unexpired Texas concealed handgun license or license to carry.

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: Utility or residence service bill dated within 90 days of date of application.

Senator Bettencourt: Sure, the utility bills are already in it.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. And selective service card–

Senator Bettencourt: Is a no because we don't think there's an address on it.

Senator Gutierrez: Right. Current homeowners or renters insurance policy statement.

Senator Bettencourt: Should be, yes.

Senator Bettencourt: Sure.

Senator Gutierrez: Let's talk about Texas high school, college, or university report card or transfer.

Senator Bettencourt: We don't think there's an address on it, so no.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay, fair enough. A preprinted W-2, 1099, or 1098 tax form from an employer or governmental or financial–

Senator Bettencourt: With–

Senator Gutierrez: –institution.

Senator Bettencourt: –without an address, no.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. And mail or printed electronic statements from financial institutions that have an address. Would that be, suffice?

Senator Bettencourt: Within 90 days, sure.

Senator Gutierrez: Within 90 days. Electronic statements from a federal, state, county, or city governing agency or third party representing government agency dated within 90 days of date of application.

Senator Bettencourt: Right, without an address, no.
Senator Gutierrez: Okay. Current automobile payment booklet or statement.

Senator Bettencourt: No, because those could be sent to P.O. boxes which we're trying to stop.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. And current documents issued by the U.S. military or Veterans Administration indicating residential address.

Senator Bettencourt: Yes.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay. And these are all things, again, from the, from the DPS list. And so, you're suggesting to us that these are included in your bill, correct?

Senator Bettencourt: Right.

Senator Gutierrez: And lastly, on the second page, letter of Texas residency issued by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department.

Senator Bettencourt: Certainly.

Senator Gutierrez: Okay, at this time, Mr. President, could we please have these last remarks placed in the Journal for legislative intent?

(Senator Hughes in Chair)
