Our Father and our God, we thank You today for the privilege of coming into Your presence. We thank You for Your gracious hand which has preserved us as a nation. We praise You for the peaceful continuity of government. We recall that the Bible says, Unless the Lord build the house, those that built it labor in vain. You also said that to whom much has been given, much shall be required. We look gratefully to the past and thank You that from the very foundations of America, You granted our forefathers courage and wisdom, as they trusted in You. So, we ask today that You would inspire us by their example: where there has been failure, forgive us; where there has been progress, confirm; where there has been success, give us humility; and teach us to follow Your instructions more closely as we enter the next century. Give to all those to whom You have entrusted leadership today a desire to seek Your will and to do it. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

Thank you, Mr. President and Members. At this time I move to suspend the Senate’s regular order of business to take up and consider Senate Concurrent Resolution 29. This resolution implores the United States Board on Geographic Names to change the names of 20 geographical features in Texas containing the word "Negro." Twenty years ago, the 72nd legislative session passed HB 1756, sponsored in, in the Senate. HB 1756 directed TxDot to submit names changes, name change applications, to United States Board on Geographic Names on almost 20 geographic features in Texas, all containing the word "Negro." The name includes Negro Hollow, Negro Tank, Negro Lake, among other features all simply prefaced with the word "Negro." However, changing these names eventually languished and it was never accomplished. However, the United States Board on Geographic Names is waiting for a list of, for its next meeting in June to finalize these names. SCR 29 implores these names are changed for the good of Texas. Members, I want to take a moment to say thank you to all 30 of my colleagues who signed on to this resolution. It means a lot to me and other African Americans in this State of Texas. I think it speaks loudly on what we are really all about and what we stand for in this Chamber. So, Madam Chair, Mr. President, before I move forward, I just want to say thank you sincerely to each and every last one of you, and I move adoption, Mr. President.

Senator Bettencourt: Okay, that's right. Senator, does this have anything to do with the home schooling association that expressed concern–

Senator Miles: Yes.
Senator Bettencourt: –of, about this data being used to track students that go into home schooling, and they're concerned enough to be alerting negatively on the bill right now. So, does this amendment address their concerns?

Senator Miles: It does not. I appreciate you bringing that concern to me and talking about, talking about it alone with me. But it does not address home schools whatsoever, and is not, we're not trying to track how many kids are in home schools.

Senator Bettencourt: Could you address it by legislative intent at this point, by addressing their concerns specifically?

Senator Miles: As ways in an amendment or you just want me to explain to them that this is for public school system?

Senator Bettencourt: Well, I think that they would prefer amendment. I think they had some amendment language. Do you? Are you going to be bringing that up later or?

Senator Bettencourt: Is this the amendment that they wanted? That was what–

Senator Miles: Yes.

Senator Miles: Yes.

Senator Bettencourt: Okay. Well now, I just want to make sure, Senator Miles, because it's an important point because we don't want, we've got four major, as you know, market channels now for education and the largest growing one is actually home schooling which is estimated to be up to 600,000 students at this point. So, if–

Senator Miles: I'm trying–

Senator Bettencourt: –this is the amendment–

Senator Miles: –and, I'm going to, I'm going to make the same comment when you asked me originally, why does a home school kid need to know what his address is if he's at home?

Senator Bettencourt: Well, I think they're worried that somebody else gets the data and calls them because of that. But that's, but if this amendment solves it, and–

Senator Miles: This amendment–

Senator Bettencourt: –Senator Taylor says so–

Senator Miles: –solves that.

Senator Bettencourt: –then, I'm good with it. So, thank you for taking the questions.

Senator Miles: Thank you, Senator Bettencourt.

Senator Hancock: Yeah. Our understanding in reading the language is, and we talked, I think we shared with you some of the language in there that it would address that, because it talks about, you know, trailers or movable objects so our understanding is this would address that issue. And so, appreciate the clarification.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Kolkhorst and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Kolkhorst and Lucio regarding Floor Amendment No. 2 to HB 1585 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Senator Kolkhorst, for what purpose?

Senator Kolkhorst: Does the author of the amendment yield for a question?

President: Senator Lucio, you yield?

Senator Lucio: I yield.

Senator Kolkhorst: Thank you. Thank you, Senator Lucio. I know this is a very important Sunset Bill and appreciate your hard work on this, and you always advocate for education, appreciate you so much. My question is to kind of set a stage and it's work that I did when I was in the House with Senator Duncan and at the time, Representative Craig Eiland on retire-rehire. And we had some major issues going on at that point. We made some adjustments not just to retire-rehire but the five-year averaging and a couple of other changes that some have credited keeping us, though, Senator Huffman, we struggle to make sure that we're solvent and within that 31-year window and all of the requirements of pension funds. We still struggle with that. It really did put a tourniquet on the bleeding. Much of those changes had been made in the 1990s when the good times were rolling. I remember Barry Telford at the time had made those changes and then he was actually lobbying for the Texas State Retired Teachers Association after he had retired, and he came to me and he said, I was wrong about some of the things that we did because this system is going to do nothing but now hurt our retired teachers. So, in making this change, Senator Lucio, where we, you don't have to lay out for those 12 months. We're going to move it to January the 1st, 2021.

Senator Lucio: That's correct.

Senator Kolkhorst: I think that, you know, in meeting with others the actuary soundness is going to be okay. Correct?

Senator Lucio: Yes, Ma'am. It will be. I've been assured of that.
Senator Kolkhorst: But if we do this again next year, and we move it to 2023, and then the next time we move it to 2025, and the next time we move it to 2027, what does that do?

Senator Lucio: Well, I, you know, we're going to have to wait and take it up at that time and discuss what impact it will have. Certainly, if it has a negative impact, we're not going to support any effort that will make the fund unsolvent.

Senator Kolkhorst: So, there's a reason that we've waited a decade to change this date. And I'm going to kind of, if you don't mind, take the liberty of answering my own question there.

Senator Lucio: Sure, go ahead.

Senator Kolkhorst: It changes the behavior of retirement.

Senator Lucio: That's--

Senator Kolkhorst: It absolutely would change the behavior of retirement and it would have an actuary impact. And so, one of the things that I'm going to say, I'm going to support your amendment, but it was, it was extremely hard to change the behavior of what had been created. And this was, I believe if I'm correct it was 2005 when we did all this work and part of the work was, you know, I gave the example of if I retire today and I start drawing my pension fund but then I go back in that same teaching position or staff position or superintendent position, I can't pay back into the fund, that's double jeopardy by federal rules. Right? And so, we did where the school district had to pay both sides of the retirements to keep the fund solvent. Now, I know that Senator Schwertner, you've got some corrections on some things of the penalties that teachers have to pay. School districts are passing that one and there's some work we need to do. But the idea is to keep the teacher retirement system fund solvent and to not change retirement patterns. It really can have an impact, a devastating impact on our teachers that solely depend on these funds to live. My sister is one of them. She does not get social security. She retires on, and she's widowed. And she didn't get her husband's social security. She didn't get that option either. And so, retired teachers are a special group that we always want to protect. We laud them, we had the retired teachers day, and we all stood up and told stories of the impact. I said, I'm not here but for Doug Smith as my high school golf coach and Miss Condra, my second grade teacher, who told me I could do anything I wanted to do or be. I wouldn't stand on this floor today and represent the people. So, my question to you is just that we have to be sensitive when we change these retirement dates so that we do not change behavior in retirement patterns.

Senator Lucio: I want to make it very clear today, for everyone listening, the change is only for one time and there is no intention on my part and I'm sure no intention on part of anyone here today that we make this a regular pattern for us to follow in the future.

Senator Kolkhorst: Thank you.

Senator Lucio: So, I wanted to make that clear today.
Senator Kolkhorst: Thank you, Senator. Senator Perry, I mean, Mr. President, I’d like to have motion that we reduce the exchange between Senator Lucio and I, reduce it to writing and place it in the Journal.

Amend SB 2194 (senate committee printing) by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 26. Subchapter C, Chapter 39, Utilities Code, is amended by adding Section 39.110 to read as follows:

Sec. 39.110. WHOLESALE INDEXED PRODUCTS PROHIBITED. (a) In this section, "wholesale indexed product" means a retail electric product in which the price a customer pays for electricity includes a direct pass-through of real-time settlement point prices determined by the independent organization certified under Section 39.151 for the ERCOT power region.

(b) An aggregator, a broker, or a retail electric provider may not offer a wholesale indexed product to a residential or small commercial customer.

(c) An aggregator, a broker, or a retail electric provider may enroll a customer other than a residential and small commercial customer in a wholesale indexed product only if the provider, aggregator, or broker obtains before the customer's enrollment an acknowledgment signed by the customer that the customer accepts the potential price risks associated with a wholesale indexed product.

(d) An acknowledgment required by Subsection (c) must include the following statement, in clear, boldfaced text:

"I understand that the volatility and fluctuation of wholesale energy pricing may cause my energy bill to be multiple times higher in a month in which wholesale energy prices are high. I understand that I will be responsible for charges caused by fluctuations in wholesale energy prices."

(e) An acknowledgment required by Subsection (c) may be included as an addendum to a contract.

(f) A retail electric provider that provides a wholesale indexed product to a customer must keep on file the acknowledgment required by Subsection (c) for each customer while the customer is enrolled with the retail electric provider in the wholesale indexed product.

SECTION 27. Section 39.112, Utilities Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 39.112. NOTICE OF EXPIRATION AND PRICE CHANGE. (a) In this section, "fixed rate product" means a retail electric product with a term of at least three months for which the price for each billing period, including recurring charges, does not change throughout the term of the contract, except that the price may vary to reflect actual changes in transmission and distribution utility charges, changes to ERCOT or Texas Regional Entity administrative fees charged to loads, or changes to federal, state, or local laws that result in new or modified fees or costs that are not within the retail electric provider's control.

(b) A retail electric provider shall provide a residential customer who has a fixed rate product with at least three [one] written notices [notice] of the date the fixed rate product will expire. The notices [notice] must be provided during the last third of the contract period and in intervals that allow for, as practicable, even distribution of the notices throughout the last third of the contract period. The final notice for a contract with a period of more than four months must be provided at least 30 days before the date that the contract will expire. The final notice for a contract with a period of less than four months must be provided at least 15 days before the date that the contract will expire.

(c) The retail electric provider must provide each notice required by Subsection (b) to the customer by mail at the customer's billing address, unless the customer has opted to receive communications electronically from the retail electric provider.

(d) If the retail electric provider has access to customer contact information that allows the provider to send the customer a text message or call the customer, and the customer has agreed to receive notices by text message or call, the retail electric provider may provide additional notice to the customer by text message or call of the date the fixed rate product will expire. Notice provided by text message or call does not constitute notice under Subsection (b).

(e) A notice required by Subsection (b) must:

(1) for a notice provided by mail, be sent to the customer's billing address by mail at least 30, but not more than 60, days preceding the date the contract will expire;

(2) be sent to the customer's e-mail address, if available to the provider and if the customer has agreed to receive notices electronically, at least 30, but not more than 60, days preceding the date the contract will expire;

(3) include in a manner visible from the outside of the envelope in which the notice is sent, a statement that reads: "Contract Expiration Notice. See Enclosed."

(4) if included with a customer's bill, be printed on a separate page or included as a separate document; and

(5) include a description of any fees or charges associated with the early termination of the customer's fixed rate product; and

(6) describe any renewal offers the retail electric provider chooses to make available to the customer and identify methods by which the customer may obtain the contract documents for each of the offered products.

(f) The final notice provided under Subsection (b) must include the pricing terms for the default renewal product required by Subsection (h).

(g) A retail electric provider shall include on each billing statement, in boldfaced and underlined text, the end date of the fixed rate product.

(h) Except as provided by Subsection (j), if a customer does not select another retail electric product before the expiration of the customer's contract term with a retail electric provider, the provider shall automatically serve the customer through a default renewal product that the customer may cancel at any time without a fee. The default renewal product must be:

(1) a month-to-month product in which the price the customer pays for electricity may vary between billing cycles; and

(2) based on clear terms designed to be easily understood by the average customer.

(i) A retail electric provider shall include in each contract for service the terms of the default renewal product that the customer will automatically be enrolled in under Subsection (h) if the customer does not select another retail electric product before the expiration of the contract term.
(j) If a retail electric provider does not provide notice of the expiration of a customer's contract with the provider in accordance with this section and the customer does not select another retail electric product before the expiration of the customer's contract term with the provider, the retail electric provider must continue to serve the customer under the pricing terms of the fixed rate product contract until:

(1) the provider provides notice of the expiration of the contract in accordance with this section; or

(2) the customer selects another retail electric product.

(k) No provision in this section shall be construed to prohibit the commission from adopting rules that would provide a greater degree of customer protection.

SECTION 28. The changes in law made by this Act apply only to an enrollment or reenrollment of a customer in a retail electric product that is executed on or after the effective date of this Act. An enrollment or reenrollment of a customer in a retail electric product that is executed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law as it existed immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION 29. This Act takes effect September 1, 2021.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Johnson and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Hughes and Johnson regarding HB 567 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:
President: Senator Johnson, for what purpose?

Senator Johnson: Questions of the author.

President: Do you yield?

Senator Hughes: Of course, I'll yield.

Senator Johnson: Senator Hughes, you and I have talked before, just to clarify the legislative intent to this bill, it's good work. And we talked about one of the standards of neglect that you wanted to address some kind of fluffy language in here. I think previously parents could have their children removed if there were, if it were found to be a substantial risk of a litany of things. And substantial risk really leaves a lot of people uncomfortable and possibly some room for some really grievous action on the part of CPS if they're not doing things rights. So--

Senator Hughes: That’s right.

Senator Johnson: –I appreciate, and I know you've worked with stakeholders to make this a really important and solid bill. But I do think it's also important that when we have this new language in here, we, we get a legislative record for what we mean. So, the change that you introduced was striking the word "substantial risk" and replacing it with an "immediate danger" for various things. Correct?

Senator Hughes: That’s right.

Senator Johnson: Now, when you say immediate danger, we don't mean within the next 15 seconds or so. Right?

Senator Hughes: That’s correct.

Senator Johnson: Okay. So, if we think it's going to happen, whether it's in five seconds or five minutes, five hours or five days, if CPS has a reason to believe that something bad is going to happen, that’s an immediate danger for purposes of neglectfully leaving the kid in that situation. Right?

Senator Hughes: Senator, that’s right. The idea is that we are not addressing different styles of parenting but danger to the children. That’s exactly right.

Senator Johnson: Right. And immediate in this context is, is like imminent.

Senator Hughes: That’s right. In fact, the courts have held that those two terms have virtually the same meaning in this context. That’s correct.

Senator Johnson: Right. So, if the Lieutenant Governor says you have to come up to the dais immediately, I better go right now. But in the statute when we say immediately, we mean that we're really concerned that something’s going to happen at any given moment.

Senator Hughes: That’s right.

Senator Johnson: Okay.

Senator Hughes: That’s right.
Senator Johnson: Okay. And so, this might apply in the instance of say, we have evidence of an abusive parent who’s gone several days a week and the other parent does nothing to take this child out of danger. We know that parent’s going to come home and commit some kind of abuse, that would be an immediate threat, right?

Senator Hughes: Senator, that’s right, and as you know, the standards for abuse itself is not changed by this statute. But that parent who is allowing that, that would be neglect. So, you’re exactly right. In a situation like that, the child would be protected. That’s right.

Senator Johnson: Thank you, Senator Hughes.

Senator Hughes: Senator Johnson, thank you.

(Senator Kolkhorst in Chair)
