(b) A presumption under this subchapter does not apply:

(b) This section does not apply to a claim that a firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician suffers from severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).

(1) is employed in the area designated in a disaster declaration by the governor under Section 418.014 or another law and the disaster is related to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19); and

(2) contracts the disease during the disaster declared by the governor described by Subdivision (1).

(b) The presumption under this section applies only to a person who:

(1) is employed as a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician on a full-time basis; and

(2) was last on duty not more than 14 days before the date the person tests positive for severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).

(c) This section does not affect the right of a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician to provide proof, without the use of the presumption under this section, that an injury or illness occurred during the course and scope of employment.

(d) Sections 409.009 and 409.0091, Labor Code, do not apply to a claim for compensation determined to be compensable or accepted by an insurance carrier as compensable using the presumption under this section. Notwithstanding this subsection, an injured employee may request reimbursement for health care paid by the employee as provided by Section 409.0092, Labor Code.

SECTION 6. Section 607.057, Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 607.057. EFFECT OF PRESUMPTION. Except as provided by Section 607.052(b), a presumption established under this subchapter applies to a determination of whether a detention officer's, corrections employee's, firefighter's, peace officer's, or emergency medical technician's disability or death resulted from a disease or illness contracted in the course and scope of employment for purposes of benefits or compensation provided under another employee benefit, law, or plan, including a pension plan.

SECTION 7. Section 607.058, Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 607.058. PRESUMPTION REBUTTABLE. (a) A presumption under Section 607.053, 607.054, 607.0545, 607.055, or 607.056 may be rebutted through a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that a risk factor, accident, hazard, or other cause not associated with the individual's service as a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician was a substantial factor in bringing about the individual's disease or illness, without which the disease or illness would not have occurred.

(b) A rebuttal offered under this section must include a statement by the person offering the rebuttal that describes, in detail, the evidence that the person reviewed before making the determination that a cause not associated with the individual's service as a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician was a substantial factor in bringing about the individual's disease or illness, without which the disease or illness would not have occurred.

(c) In addressing an argument based on a rebuttal offered under this section, an administrative law judge shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law that consider whether a qualified expert, relying on evidence-based medicine, stated the opinion that, based on reasonable medical probability, an identified risk factor, accident, hazard, or other cause not associated with the individual's service as a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician was a substantial factor in bringing about the individual's disease or illness, without which the disease or illness would not have occurred.

(d) A rebuttal offered under this section to a presumption under Section 607.0545 may not be based solely on evidence relating to the risk of exposure to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) of a person with whom a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician resides.

(e) A rebuttal offered under this section to a presumption under Section 607.0545 may be based on evidence that a person with whom a detention officer, corrections employee, firefighter, peace officer, or emergency medical technician resides had a confirmed diagnosis of severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).

SECTION 8. Subchapter A, Chapter 409, Labor Code, is amended by adding Section 409.0092 to read as follows:

Sec. 409.0092. HEALTH CARE REIMBURSEMENT PROCEDURES FOR CERTAIN INJURED EMPLOYEES. (a) An injured employee whose claim for compensation is determined to be accepted by an insurance carrier as compensable using the presumption under Section 607.0545, Government Code, may request reimbursement for health care paid by the employee, including copayments and partial payments, by submitting to the carrier a legible written request and documentation showing the amounts paid to the health care provider.

(b) Not later than the 45th day after the date an injured employee submits a request for reimbursement for health care to an insurance carrier under Subsection (a), the carrier shall provide reimbursement or deny the request.

(c) If an insurance carrier denies an injured employee's request for reimbursement for health care, the employee may seek medical dispute resolution as provided by Chapter 413 and division rules. Notwithstanding any other law, an employee's request for medical dispute resolution is considered timely if the employee submits the request not later than the 120th day after the date the carrier denies the employee's request for reimbursement.
SECTION 9. Section 409.022(d), Labor Code, is amended to read as follows:

(d) In this subsection, the terms "corrections employee," "detention officer," "emergency medical technician," "firefighter," and "peace officer" have the meanings assigned by Section 607.051, Government Code. In addition to the other requirements of this section, if an insurance carrier's notice of refusal to pay benefits under Section 409.021 is sent in response to a claim for compensation resulting from a corrections employee’s, a detention officer’s, an emergency medical technician's, a firefighter's, or a peace officer's disability or death for which a presumption is claimed to be applicable under Subchapter B, Chapter 607, Government Code, the notice must include a statement by the carrier that:

1. explains why the carrier determined a presumption under that subchapter does not apply to the claim for compensation; and
2. describes the evidence that the carrier reviewed in making the determination described by Subdivision (1).

SECTION 10. (a) The changes in law made by this Act apply to a claim for benefits, compensation, or assistance pending on or filed on or after the effective date of this Act. A claim for benefits, compensation, or assistance filed before that date, other than a claim pending on that date, is covered by the law in effect on the date the claim was made, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, a person who on or after the date the governor declared a disaster under Chapter 418, Government Code, relating to SARS-CoV-2, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), but before the effective date of this Act, contracted SARS-CoV-2, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), may file a claim for benefits, compensation, or assistance related to SARS-CoV-2, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), on or after the effective date of this Act, regardless of whether that claim is otherwise considered untimely and the changes in law made by this Act apply to that claim. A claim authorized under this subsection must be filed not later than six months after the effective date of this Act.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (a) of this section or Section 409.003, 410.169, or 410.205, Labor Code, a person who on or after the date the governor declared a disaster under Chapter 418, Government Code, relating to SARS-CoV-2, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), but before the effective date of this Act, filed a claim for benefits, compensation, or assistance related to SARS-CoV-2, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), and whose claim was subsequently denied may, on or after the effective date of this Act, request in writing that the insurance carrier reprocess the claim and the changes in law made by this Act shall apply to that claim. A request to reprocess a claim as authorized by this subsection shall be filed not later than one year after the effective date of this Act.

(d) Not later than the 60th day after the date an insurance carrier receives a written request to reprocess a claim under Subsection (c) of this section, the insurance carrier shall reprocess the claim and notify the person in writing whether the carrier accepted or denied the claim. If the insurance carrier denies the claim, the notice must include information on the process for disputing the denial. The notice provided by the insurance carrier must use the notice provisions prescribed by the division of workers' compensation of the Texas Department of Insurance under Subsection (e) of this section.
(e) As soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, the division of workers' compensation of the Texas Department of Insurance shall prescribe notice provisions for an insurance carrier to use when providing notice of the insurance carrier's acceptance or denial of a person's claim. The notice provisions must be clear and easily understandable.

SECTION 11. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2021.

The governing body of a municipality, county, or school district may not repeal, rescind, or take other action to negate the adoption of the limitation once adopted under this subsection.

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of Sections 23.23 and 25.18, and regardless of whether the appraisal office has appraised eligible property and determined the market value of the property for the tax year, the appraised value of the property for a tax year to which a limitation under this section applies is, for the taxing unit that adopted the limitation, the lesser of:

(1) the appraised value of the property as otherwise determined by law; or

(2) the appraised value of the property for the tax year preceding the tax year in which the limitation adopted by that taxing unit first applies, as provided by Subsection (e).

(d) When appraising eligible property, the chief appraiser shall:

(1) appraise the property as otherwise determined by law; and

(2) include in the appraisal records:

Section 25.19(g), Tax Code, is amended to read as follows:

By April 1 or as soon thereafter as practicable if the property is a single-family residence that qualifies for an exemption under Section 11.13, or by May 1 or as soon thereafter as practicable in connection with any other property, the chief appraiser shall deliver a written notice to the owner of each property not included in a notice required to be delivered under Subsection (a), if the property was reappraised in the current tax year, if the ownership of the property changed during the preceding year, or if the property owner or the agent of a property owner authorized under Section 1.111 makes a written request for the notice. The chief appraiser shall separate real from personal property and include in the notice for each property:

   (6) identification of the taxing units in which the owner's property is taxable in the case of the appraisal district's appraisal roll;
   (7) determination that the property owner is the owner of property;

(a) In this section, "Texas trade association" means a cooperative and voluntarily joined statewide association of business or professional competitors in this state designed to assist its members and its industry or profession in dealing with mutual business or professional problems and in promoting their common interest.

(b) A person may not be a member of the policymaking body of a state agency and may not be an employee of the state agency employed in a "bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity," as that phrase is used for purposes of establishing an exemption to the overtime provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. Section 201 et seq.) if:

(1) the person is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a Texas trade association in a field regulated by the state agency; or

(2) the person's spouse is an officer, manager, or paid consultant of a Texas trade association in a field regulated by the state agency.

(c) A person may not be a member of a state agency's policymaking body or act as the general counsel to the state agency's policymaking body or the state agency if the person is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 305 because of the person's activities for compensation on behalf of a profession related to the operation of the state agency.

(d) In addition to the restrictions provided by Subsection (b), a person may not be a member of the policymaking body of a state agency that regulates a health care occupation and may not be an employee of the state agency as described by Subsection (b) if the person is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a Texas trade association in the field of health care.

Sec. 325.055. GROUNDS FOR REMOVAL OF MEMBERS FROM POLICYMAKING BODIES. (a) It is a ground for removal from a state agency's policymaking body that a member:

(2) does not maintain during service on the policymaking body the qualifications required by law to be a member of the policymaking body;

(3) is ineligible for membership on the policymaking body under law, including provisions relating to public membership, conflicts of interest, and lobbying;

(4) cannot, because of illness or disability, discharge the member's duties for a substantial part of the member's term; or

(5) is absent from more than half of the regularly scheduled meetings of the policymaking body that the member is eligible to attend during a calendar year without an excuse approved by a majority vote of the policymaking body.

(b) The validity of an action of a state agency’s policymaking body is not affected by the fact that it is taken when a ground for removal of a member of the policymaking body exists.

(c) If the executive head of a state agency has knowledge that a potential ground for removal exists, the executive head shall notify the presiding officer of the state agency’s policymaking body of the potential ground. The presiding officer shall then notify the governor and the attorney general that a potential ground for removal exists. If the potential ground for removal involves the presiding officer, the executive head shall notify the next highest ranking officer of the policymaking body, who shall then notify the governor and the attorney general that a potential ground for removal exists.

(c) A person appointed to the state agency's policymaking body is entitled to reimbursement, as provided by the General Appropriations Act, for the travel expenses incurred in attending the training program regardless of whether the attendance at the program occurs before or after the person qualifies for office.

(d) The executive head of the state agency shall create a training manual that includes the information required by Subsection (b). The executive head shall distribute a copy of the training manual annually to each member of the policymaking body. Each member of the policymaking body shall sign and submit to the executive head a statement acknowledging that the member received and reviewed the training manual.

Sec. 325.057. POLICIES TO SEPARATE POLICYMAKING AND STAFF FUNCTIONS. Question: Shall CSHB 2667 be finally passed?

On motion of Senator Taylor and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators Taylor and Perry regarding CSHB 2667 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Taylor: Well, thank you, Mr. President, and thank you, Chairman Perry, for allowing me this opportunity to do this. Senator Perry, to help establish some life-saving clarity and intent, is it true that your bill does not affect current law as it relates to the PUC's authority to establish a connections-based fee or deferent fee structure?

Senator Perry: That is accurate. Actually in testimony, PUC confirmed that they currently believe they have that right. The bill changes nothing in current statute regarding connection-based fees.

Senator Taylor: Alright. And part of this bill helps to clarify what a high cost rural area is. I appreciate your efforts to tailor the program but think we need to continue in this direction without adding more to the revenue side of the current TUSF problem. Should the PUC and the Legislature work over the interim on programmatic reforms and the expenditure side of the TUSF fund?

Senator Perry: Well, I think that we've worked on the expenditure sides in the past, for years. We've never really focused on the revenue side. The reform was needed for TUSF because the technology had changed the assessment base, so one change in TUSF bill reform was it actually included VoIP as possible assessment base, spreading that base across the loop. We're always open to looking at where the distributions are going and making sure those entities or those exchanges, if you will, not just the company, but within the company, there are exchanges that would meet high cost provider that may not meet the other changes inside that network, so we're always interested in making sure that it's the high cost providers that are getting the fund distribution underneath the TUSF fund.

Senator Taylor: Thank you, Senator.

Senator Perry: No problem. Thank you.

Question: Shall CSHB 2667 be finally passed?

CSHB 2667 was again finally passed by the following vote: Yes 31, Nays 0.

SECTION ___. Chapter 212, Local Government Code, is amended by adding Subchapter H to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER H. DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS AND RELEASE OF EXTRATERRITORIAL JURISDICTION FOR CERTAIN AREAS

Sec. 212.201. DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT BY PETITION. (a) A petition under this section may be filed only for an area of a municipality with a population of more than 790,000:

(1) that:

(A) is located in a subdivision that was developed with public infrastructure outside the boundaries of the municipality; and
(B) was subject to a change in the provider of fire suppression and emergency medical services after annexation for full purposes that led to a degradation in the quality and level of those services, as determined by the petitioners; or

(2) that:

(A) is subject to a municipal determination by ordinance or resolution that the municipality cannot or has not in the past regularly and routinely provided full municipal services to the area; and

(B) was exempt from municipal taxation until full municipal services were provided, regardless of whether the ordinance or resolution is repealed or purported to be repealed.

(b) A person owning land wholly or partly located in an area described by Subsection (a) may file a petition requesting the municipality to:

(1) disannex the area from the municipality and include the area in the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction; and

(2) enter into a development agreement under Subchapter G for the area.

(c) The petition filed under Subsection (b) must:

(1) include the signatures of owners of at least 51 percent of the land in the area described by the petition;

(2) include a determination by the petitioners that:

(A) the municipal services provided by the municipality are not regular and routine; and

(B) the appropriate relief to the petitioners is to:

(i) be disannexed and included in the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction; and

(ii) be subject to a development agreement under Subchapter G;

and

(3) if the land is located in a subdivision, request disannexation of all land in the subdivision that is located in the municipality.

(d) The municipality shall disannex from the municipality and include in the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction the area described by a petition filed under Subsection (b) not later than the 30th day after the date the municipality receives the petition.

(e) The municipality shall enter into a development agreement under Subchapter G with the petitioners filing a petition under Subsection (b). A development agreement under this section may only contain terms described by Section 212.172(b)(1). If the municipality does not enter into a mutually acceptable development agreement with the petitioners not later than the 90th day after the date the municipality receives the petition, the petitioners may record an affidavit in the deed records of the county in which the petitioners’ land is located. If the affidavit is recorded in accordance with this subsection, the municipality:

(1) may not annex land for which an affidavit is recorded; and

(2) is not required to enter into a development agreement with the petitioners.

(f) This section expires September 1, 2023.
Sec. 212.202. RELEASE INSTEAD OF DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT. (a) Instead of entering into a development agreement under this chapter, an owner of land disannexed under Section 212.201 may file a written petition with the municipality that disannexed the land for the land to be released from the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction if the land is at least five acres and contains not more than five residents.

(b) A petition requesting release under this section must:

(1) be signed by the owners of a majority in value of the land described by the petition, as indicated by the ad valorem tax records of the central appraisal district for the county in which the land is located; and

(2) include a determination that release from the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction is necessary or convenient to promote the development of public infrastructure instead of a development agreement.

(c) The municipality shall release from the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction the land described by a petition filed under Subsection (a) not later than the 30th day after the date the municipality receives the petition.

(d) This section does not apply to land:

(1) subject to a strategic partnership agreement under Section 43.0751; or

(2) that is located in an industrial district under Section 42.044.

Sec. 212.203. SUIT TO COMPEL; WAIVER OF GOVERNMENTAL IMMUNITY. (a) If a municipality fails to disannex or release land from the municipality’s extraterritorial jurisdiction as required by this subchapter, the person filing the petition requesting the disannexation or release may bring an action against the municipality to compel the disannexation or release of the land. If the person prevails, the person may recover attorney’s fees and court costs resulting from bringing the action.

(b) Governmental immunity to suit and from liability of the municipality is waived to the extent of liability created by this subchapter.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Whitmire and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators West and Miles regarding George Floyd were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator West: Mr. President and Members, know we had a lot of work to do today, but I'd be remiss if I didn't stand here today in remembrance of George Floyd. I know how many of you feel about George Floyd, and that's okay. Fact is, is that I think we have to just kind of think about what's happened over this past year, one year today, killed by a police officer in Minnesota. I stand for a Texas native son, George Floyd, on this very day in 2020, passing of eight minutes and 46 seconds, lost his life. That number and those images are etched in our minds, our children's minds, forever. You know as I woke today, I uttered a prayer for his family, every Member of this body, our family. As relates to his family, many of whom have been gathered in Minnesota today for most of the week to commemorate his life on his one-year anniversary, I'm reminded of words about why no bill name of George Floyd, because of his past. Each and every one of us who is without sin, let them cast the first stone. Yes, he had some troubling moments in his life, but I think all of us would agree did not deserve to die the way he died. You know, as a father, I ache for his daughter, been fatherless now for some 365 days. My, no our, heavenly Father frankly stands in the gap. Thought for his fiancée, who will never realize growing old with him. Those close grieve yet I and many in this room, this Capitol, this state, our nation, and the world have been unable to breathe during and after Mr. Floyd’s death. Guilty verdict, this cannot be called a victory. It should not be called a victory on the day it was rendered nor today’s one-year anniversary because George Floyd is dead. Dead. You mark one year since the 46-year-old Houston native’s life was ended over a store operator’s call to police claiming he passed a fake $20 bill. Let that sink in, claiming that he passed a fake $20 bill. What have we learned over this past year? Country any closer to solving these issues? Our streets when millions of people across the world protested his death, yes, there was some vandalism, which all of us condone, I mean condemn, excuse me, might have occurred. We’re living in a country that’s more polarized than ever, where we leave generations’ problems that we should, our generation, generations in this Chamber should be solving. And a minor-aged witness’ cell phone recorded a grossly nine minutes and 29 seconds that sparked outrage that, frankly, spread worldwide. You know, think about Floyd, Floyd’s death, Michael Ramos, and others. Ask yourself, Breonna Taylor, where a mistake, where a mistake was made. Atatiana Jefferson in Fort Worth where a mistake was made is ironically that most of the mistakes that have been made by police officers been associated with the death of minorities. Let me put a plug in it for a minute. I think George Floyd would want me to do this. I’m not saying that our law enforcement, most of them are bad, because that’s not the case. If I pick up a telephone and I have a problem, I want to call a police officer. But, Members, we need more transparency. I can tell you, Senator Whitmire can tell you also, I passed the first dash camera bill here in Texas. I was called by law enforcement everything except a child of God. I’ll say that again. And you know what I mean and, frankly, I was trying to pass the bill for them. I was called, Senator Bettencourt, everything except a child of God, which I am. Members, George Floyd’s death has changed the world. Not afraid to speak his name, I’ll add it to measures that will continue to be filed, dated, and eventually passed that will right wrongs. I’m just hoping that you can find it in your heart and probably all of us will come back to do some soul searching during the interim regarding what’s going on in this world, in Texas. Recognizing that a native son found as the poster child, if you will. Want to put a face on it? Someone that was murdered by a police officer that abused his power, had not that young child videotaped that, may be a different story altogether. And in closing, it would be different if this was just an isolated case. Last week, on television, Mr. President, a young man by the name of Ronald Greene in Louisiana died. You know, after a police chase. Crashed his car, truck, or vehicle I should say, into a tree. And this is media reports now, I understand the media may not get it all right, but in a media report, he crashed his vehicle into a tree. Mind you, this was over two years ago, it took over two years for the videotape to be released. In the police report, Senator Huffman, a government document, it’s reported that the officer said that he died as a result of crashing into the tree. It’s government document. Here in Texas if you falsify a government document, it’s a felony. But in this instance, once they got the body camera footage after two and a half years showed that he was tasered in the car several times, pulled out of the car, face down, handcuffed, tasered, screaming that he’s afraid, legs were shackled, he was drug by a police officer face down. Let that sink in. Officer took his, took the chains and just started dragging him. And still the police report said he died as a result of his vehicle crashing into the tree. Why do I make that, tell you about that? I know that all of you would agree that it's despicable, that all of the facts come out and verify that. George Floyd, a native son of Texas, died, was killed, and I'm hoping that we, as a generation of leaders in this state, won't pass these issues on to another generation of Texans, that we take the responsibility. Yes, Senator Hughes, we don't want one race to think they're superior over another. That's just part of the job that the State Board of Education should be doing. The other part is trying to help us find ways in order to make sure that racism, ugly face of racism, is no longer welcomed or tolerated, more importantly, in this state. On behalf of the George Floyd family, I just want to stop just a few minutes, Mr. President, to ask that we adjourn in honor of George Floyd.

President: Thank you, Senator West. Excuse me. Senator Miles.

Senator Miles: Thank you, Mr. President and Members. I, too, want to rise this evening before we close in recognition of the one year death of Brother Floyd. See Brother Floyd was a Houston and Third Ward native just like me. George Floyd and I both attended the same high school, Jack Yates senior high. George Floyd is a father, he was a son, and he was a brother. So, Members, in the long list of deaths of African Americans at the hands of the police, his death hit me pretty hard. Pretty damn hard. We went to the same high school, we grew up in the same neighborhood, we knew the same people, and I know his family. I've been to many memorials in remembrance of George Floyd in the past year. There's now a street memorial in front of our high school in honor of George Floyd. I sponsored many events and gatherings and rallies for George Floyd. At all these events I've said the same thing, he shook the world, Royce. And his death must not be in vain. Mr. President and Members, I'm glad we made some steps this session, and I want to thank all of you for the steps that we have taken. My House bill passed with Senate Bills 68, 69 today, in honor of George Floyd today, which bans choke holds and gives a duty to intervene to police officers who witness misconduct. And again, I want to thank you for a unanimous vote coming out of this Chamber. I want to thank you on behalf of the Floyd family and for our community, for a unanimous vote coming out of the 87th legislative session, out of this Senate body. But more needs to be done. I look forward to building on the progress that we made this session in tackling the many parts of the George Floyd Act that we did not pass this session. But I'd be remiss if I didn't mention that I've been passing criminal justice reform acts since 2011, Senator West, Chairman, Madam Chair, ever since the beating of a young man named Chad Holley in Houston, Texas. Some of you may remember that name, Bettencourt, but I find it awfully strange that none of those bills since 2011 ever got heard until the cameras and the spotlight was shined on George Floyd. Many of you fell in love with the young man, Mr. McBride, that was here today. He warmed everybody's heart, but I want us all to know if we don't take matters into our own hands, if we're not honest with ourselves about police brutality and how society views Black men, that young man could be the next George Floyd. Thank you once again, Members, for a unanimous vote in the spirit of George Floyd and his family.
