The President Pro Tempore announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Rabbi Brian Strauss, Congregation Beth Yeshurun, Houston, offered the invocation as follows:

O God, we come before You today with humble hearts, seeking Your guidance and Your blessing as the Texas State Senate continues its work. We ask that You bless this Chamber and all those who serve within it that they may be guided by wisdom, compassion, and a steadfast commitment to justice. As we gather here today, we recognize that the work of governing is not always easy. We face complex challenges and difficult decisions that affect the lives of millions of Texans. But we also know that with Your guidance all things are possible. We ask that You bless our state, its leaders, and its citizens with Your grace and Your wisdom. May our leaders be inspired to seek the common good, to work tirelessly for justice, and to be guided by the principles of compassion and mercy. We give thanks for the many blessings in our lives, for our families, our friends, and our communities. May we always be mindful of those who are less fortunate, and may we be inspired to use our talents and resources to make a positive impact in the world. To this, let us say, Amen.
