REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Middleton and by unanimous consent, the remarks on closing by Senator Hughes regarding CSSB 12 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members. The bill we debated yesterday and had a lot of discussion about, I do want to clarify a couple of things that came up about whether the Penal Code already addresses this conduct. There was discussion about Section 43.24 and that section by definition does not cover performances of the kind we are dealing with. Section 43.24 protects minors from harmful material, and in the subchapter, Subchapter B that contains this materials defined by focus on tangible objects such as printed material. It does not speak to the actions of individuals or performances, in fact, the subchapter has a second section where they define performance, but it is not covered in that section of the Penal Code. So, to be clear, these kind of sexual performances in front of children are not currently covered by a law, and beyond that, we had a good discussion about vagueness about giving people notice. It is necessary for us to make sure the law is clear. And again, lest there be any confusion, this bill is about protecting minors. This bill says that minors should not be exposed to sexual performances. I hope we can all agree on that, and I move final passage.

SENATE BILL 1601 ON THIRD READING

Nays: Alvarado, Blanco, Eckhardt, Gutierrez, Hinojosa, Johnson, LaMantia, Menéndez, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Present-not voting: Miles.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 18, Nays 11, Present-not voting 2.

Yeas: Bettencourt, Birdwell, Campbell, Creighton, Flores, Hall, Hancock, Huffman, Hughes, King, Kolkhorst, Middleton, Parker, Paxton, Perry, Schwertner, Sparks, Springer.

Nays: Alvarado, Blanco, Eckhardt, Gutierrez, Hinojosa, Johnson, LaMantia, Menéndez, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

Present-not voting: Miles, Nichols.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Hinojosa and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senator Johnson regarding CSSB 1601 on third reading were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members. It's a statement on the bill but also on our votes. I want to be clear that a vote cast against this bill is not a vote cast for anything. We're not advocating for anything in any library or not in any library. Speaking personally, and probably for many of my colleagues, we're concerned about the drafting of the bill. It's overbroad and we think it may have consequences far beyond addressing the behavior and practices that it's intended to address. So, we are voting against it, and sadly, we tried to amend the bill yesterday with language taken directly from our closely related bill. The amendment was rejected. It would have strengthened the bill. It would have allowed it to achieve the purpose for which it was drafted initially without kind of leading to this expansive government, risky ambiguity that presently, in the bill. Senator Hughes, I wish you'd accepted the amendment, and then we all would have voted for this bill. Thank you, Mr. President.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
SENATE BILL 2015 ON THIRD READING

Senator King moved to suspend the regular order of business to take up for consideration CSSB 2015 at this time on its third reading and final passage:

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 21, Nays 10.

Yeas: Bettencourt, Birdwell, Blanco, Campbell, Creighton, Flores, Hall, Hancock, Hinojosa, Huffman, Hughes, King, Kolkhorst, Middleton, Nichols, Parker, Paxton, Perry, Schwertner, Sparks, Springer.

Nays: Alvarado, Eckhardt, Gutierrez, Johnson, LaMantia, Menéndez, Miles, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

The bill was read third time and was passed by the following vote: Yeas 21, Nays 10. (Same as previous roll call)

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Senator Hinojosa and by unanimous consent, the remarks by Senators King and Hinojosa regarding CSSB 2015 were ordered reduced to writing and printed in the Senate Journal as follows:

President: Senator Hinojosa.

Senator Hinojosa: Thank you, Mr. President. May I ask some questions for legislative intent to Senator King?

President: Do you yield?

Senator King: Certainly.

Senator Hinojosa: Thank you, Senator King, for yielding. And I think we got the right bill this time.

Senator King: Yes, Sir.

Senator Hinojosa: Senate Bill 2015, as you know, we were having discussions yesterday. Senator Blanco asked some questions for legislative intent, and I followed up with a project out of Corpus Christi, the Port of Corpus Christi. And as you well know, hydrogen had become a great source of energy, not only in our state but throughout the United States. And hydrogen is both renewable and dispatchable, and my question is, under your definition in your bill, would hydrogen energy be considered dispatchable? This is one of those issues where this type of energy source can be both renewable and dispatchable.

Senator King: Certainly. Dispatchable refers to a continual heat source, or energy source, that's not related to the weather, under this bill and under SB 3 from last session. And hydrogen, as I understand the technology, is one of those unique things that is both renewable and dispatchable. So, with regard to this bill, as I understand it, the hydrogen technology would absolutely be within the definition of dispatchable.

Senator Hinojosa: And it's safe to say that your bill, 2015, promotes and incentivizes the investment in these renewable technologies, as it relates specifically to hydrogen energy because it's also dispatchable.

Senator King: Yes. The bill is technology neutral. It simply works toward that definition of dispatchable, and hydrogen certainly fits within that.

Senator Hinojosa: Thank you for answering my questions.

Senator King: Thank you, Senator.

Senator Hinojosa: And, Mr. President, I would move that the exchange between Senator King and myself be reduced to writing in the Journal.

REASON FOR VOTE ON COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 20

Senator Blanco submitted the following statement regarding CSSB 20:

"My vote for Senate Bill 20 was through the lens of a mass shooting that occurred in my community.

"As a legislator who represents a community that has been devastated by racist mass gun violence, I wholeheartedly believe it is our responsibility to take necessary measures to ensure the safety of our communities. Gun violence is the leading cause of death in kids, according to the CDC, and in a state with loose gun laws, we need enforcement. Just last year, a District Attorney in El Paso, who has since resigned, was failing to prosecute this atrocious racist mass shooting.

"I voted for SB 20 from this perspective.

"Since this vote, I have heard from a handful of allies and organizations who have expressed their concerns from a variety of perspectives including women's health, election cases, and first-time drug offenders.

"While my initial vote had good intentions for my community from the gun violence lens, these organizations have made me aware of the broader concerns and implications of SB 20. Taking their concerns into account, I will be switching my vote to Nay."

Senator Nichols: I can repeat it. If a commercial provider doesn't apply a city, non-commercial provider can apply.

Senator Hinojosa: So, then a city would qualify and be eligible for assistance if a commercial operator was not interested in coming in to assist and provide broadband.

Senator Nichols: Yes.

Senator Hinojosa: Okay. So then, so then a city who actually invested funds or incurred credit on their own because there was no commercial operator that wanted to come in and invest on broadband, they would qualify for assistance from the state or federal government on Senate Bill 1238.

Senator Nichols: That is my understanding.
