

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

(Monday, May 15, 2023)

The Senate met at 12:18 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Senator Birdwell.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Alvarado, Bettencourt, Birdwell, Blanco, Campbell, Creighton, Eckhardt, Flores, Gutierrez, Hall, Hancock, Hinojosa, Huffman, Hughes, Johnson, King, Kolkhorst, LaMantia, Menéndez, Middleton, Miles, Nichols, Parker, Paxton, Perry, Schwertner, Sparks, Springer, West, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

The Presiding Officer announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Pastor Larry Coulter, Lakeway Church, offered the invocation as follows:

Almighty God, in whom we live and move and have our very being, on this day, as the Senate begins its work, a day of deliberations and decisions, we want to take a moment and give You thanks for the great State of Texas. It is a great land that we share, an inherited gift whose people have a common love of place. From the Piney Woods of East Texas to the pounding surf of coast, from the expanse of the High Plains, to the rich farm lands, from our borders that we share with New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mexico, to the arid mountains of the West, the very land that we walk on declares Your praise. With all there is to do today, the weighty responsibility of leadership, may You give us the grace as we open this day to remember our home, and throughout the hours that follow, may we simply say, thank you. Now, with all the bills that are coming before this body, I ask that You impart a collective wisdom. Give each of the Senators the ability to set aside partisan maneuvering when it gets in the way of doing the best for the common good. In the heat of differences on important decisions, may we always affirm the dignity of the other, so that we may walk into the hard places with a bold conviction and then, by our debate, may we seek a reasoned outcome. On this day, may You give strength where it is needed. May You give creativity and thoughtfulness where it is required. May You, Lord, giver of all good things, guide the hearts and minds of our Senators. And may You remove from them decision fatigue that so weighs down the mind after so many days of meetings. Grant now that Your spirit would be moving in this place and the decisions made here might serve to take our state from strength to strength. May all that we do give You glory and honor praise. I pray this in His name. Amen.

Senator Whitmire moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.
