

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

SIXTEENTH DAY

(Wednesday, March 12, 2025)

The Senate met at 11:07 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Senator Birdwell.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Alvarado, Bettencourt, Birdwell, Blanco, Campbell, Cook, Creighton, Eckhardt, Flores, Gutierrez, Hagenbuch, Hall, Hancock, A. Hinojosa, J. Hinojosa, Huffman, Hughes, Johnson, King, Kolkhorst, Menéndez, Middleton, Miles, Nichols, Parker, Paxton, Perry, Schwertner, Sparks, West, Zaffirini.

The Presiding Officer announced that a quorum of the Senate was present.

Pastor Dustin Slaton, First Baptist Church, Round Rock, offered the invocation as follows:

Father God, I'm grateful to be able to offer a petition for the men and women in this room this morning. As Paul writes in Romans, they are Your servants for the good of our citizens. They serve You as they serve their constituents. I pray they will make judgments and decisions that will honor every human life for which they are responsible. As they serve our state, I pray You would allow them to feel the warmth of Your pleasure as they serve well. As they deliberate on various matters, many on which they have differing views, may they be guided by the Spirit of God. May they approach each issue with humility, with the understanding that even in disagreement, they can learn from and appreciate the views of others. I pray You would give them spirit-endued wisdom to discern right from wrong, good from bad, righteous from evil. If they lack clarity, may they humbly seek Your wisdom, as the letter of James instructs us: If we lack wisdom, we need only ask You, who gives freely and liberally. I also want to pray for the families of these men and women, their spouses and children. The schedule of a public servant calls for early mornings and late nights, and their families share the burden of their service. I ask You to shower their families with Your grace as they navigate this session. Allow the time they share together to be especially sweet and meaningful. Finally, Lord, I pray these men and women will live their lives each day with integrity and will experience the joy of Your approval in their service. May they hear the coveted words, Well done, my good and faithful servant. I pray this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Senator Zaffirini moved that the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the previous day be dispensed with and the Journal be approved as printed.

The motion prevailed without objection.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 293

Senator Cook submitted the following statement regarding SB 293:

I support the judicial compensation reforms in SB 293 as essential to attract and retain qualified judges, which is why I voted yes. However, this bill contains two subjects. I object to provisions that categorize bail decisions under Article 17.15 as "official misconduct" deserving public reprimand. These punishment provisions will exacerbate pretrial detention inequities and undermine judicial independence and constitutional protections.

COOK
