

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

(Wednesday, April 16, 2025)

AFTER RECESS

The Senate met at 11:14 a.m. and was called to order by President Pro Tempore Creighton.

Pastor Logan Reynolds, First Baptist Church, Belton, offered the invocation as follows:

Father, we come before You today with grateful hearts, acknowledging that all authority and wisdom ultimately come from You. Thank You for the opportunity to gather in this Chamber, entrusted with the responsibility of serving the people of the great State of Texas. We ask today for Your presence and guidance. Your word says in James 1:5, If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given. So, we humbly ask for Your wisdom, for clarity in decisions, compassion and charity in debates, and integrity in every action taken. Lord, bless the men and women of this Senate. Strengthen their hearts and steady their hands as they work for justice, peace, and the common good. Help them to listen well, to speak truth in love, and to lead with humility, courage, and integrity. We pray for the people of our great state, every city, every family, every life. May our leaders be faithful stewards of the trust given to them, and may they reflect Your righteousness, mercy, and grace in all they do. We commit this session into Your hands, and we ask that everything said and done here today would be done with honor, dignity, and respect, seeking not personal gain, but the good of others and Your glory. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

STATEMENT REGARDING SENATE BILL 1506

Senator Cook submitted the following statement regarding CSSB 1506:

I would like to thank Senator Parker for his commitment to public safety and victims' rights. In equal regard, I recognize our responsibility as stewards of public resources and our moral obligation to create pathways to redemption. SB 1506 poses a significant fiscal threat to an already ballooning TDCJ medical budget. Extending reconsideration intervals up to five years may result in detainees who might otherwise qualify for release remaining incarcerated at growing taxpayer expense. I'm concerned that SB 1506 applies retroactively to all current detainees, raising serious concerns about procedural fairness for those sentenced under different expectations. Many accepted plea agreements with the understanding that they would receive annual parole reviews as required by current law. And, SB 1506 may undermine rehabilitation efforts. Annual parole reviews provide crucial incentives for program participation. By extending wait times to five years, we remove immediate incentives for positive change and growth, potentially making our facilities less safe and decreasing the likelihood of successful reentry.
